IN OUR notice yesterday of the award of county printing to the GAZETTE, we should have observed that the same compliment was paid the Dispatch, the mark of distinction being shown both these journals to the exclusion of contemporary ones.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—It seems from an article, or rather a leader, in the Evening Chronicle of Friday, that it has assumed a sort of guardianship over the affairs of Allegheny, and not only favors us with its lucubrations on city government, but also a bill cut and dried for enactment by the Legislature in its proposed reform of municipal legislation for the benefit of the Councils. As one of the constituency of Allegheny we have been under the impression that the gentlemen composing our municipal government were generally men of great discretion and prudence, but it appears from the article referred to that but little, if any, confidence is to be reposed in their wisdom, and that we are to look to a Board of Public Works to take our affairs in hand, not only superceding our Council Committee on Streets, but ignoring the services of the intelligent gentleman, Mr. Davis, the City Surveyor, who has discharged his functions with great fidelity and intelligence.

We undertake to say that no such project as the form of the bill contained in the hybrid journal referred to was ever suggested by any intelligent citizen of Allegheny, nor has that paper in its career obtained any marked reputation for intelligence in its discussion of public or other topics of interest to the general reader. In our judgment the contrary is the fact.

The article referred to commences with a falsehood. No such scheme or proposition has ever been suggested by the people or agitated in the Councils of the city as it alleges to be the case, and the foundation of this impertinent obtrusion in the concerns of Allegheny. It has been often said the world is governed too much, or as a doctor would say, physiced too much, and offer therefore a quack remedy for the city of Allegheny in the shape of patent medicine provided by an act of the Legislature to heal the maladies of the body politic of this thriving city. They will hardly take the dose, and we should like to see the member of the Legislature from this county who would bring forward such a measure, and assure him that he would be sent higher than a kite at the next election. A Board of Public Works, forsooth, to supersede all the important legislation of Councils, modestly asking them to emasculate themselves, designing, we would infer, to incorporate the tanneries of Duquesne, the institutions on Butcher's Run, and Robinson's salt well as a part of their great public works, and establish a manufactory of sweet smelling compounds for their delicate olfactories.

MANCHESTER.

STATE NEWS.

—The entire line of the Wilmington and Birdsboro' Railroad has been let from West street, Wilmington, to its junction with the Reading road at Birdsboro'. The contractors are already busy at work, each with a large force of hands. The Wilmington and Reading road has a live President in Edward Brooke, Esq., who will put it through in less time and at less cost than was expended on any previous work of the kind built in the State.—Reading Journal.

—On Wednesday evening, 22d inst., a sad and perhaps fatal accident occurred at Phillipsburg, this county. A daughter of Mr. Wm. McCoy, of that place, aged fourteen, was engaged in filling a lamp with oil, and to see whether or not the lamp was full, lighted a pine splinter, which, coming in contact with the oil can, caused it to explode, the ignited oil being thrown upon the girl, whose clothes were soon almost consumed. Her screams soon brought her aid, but not until she was terribly burned. She is not expected to recover.—Clarion Banner.

—The Downingtown Journal says the wife of Jacob Spotts, of Springfield, Chester county, on Sunday night of last week, gave birth to four children, each weighing eight pounds. The mother and children are all doing well. The same paper says that on the same day the wife of Elijah B. Rettew, Esq., residing near Morgantown, gave birth to a boy weighing thirteen pounds.

—The Elizabethtown (Lancaster county) Gazette says: "Mathias Shenk, Sr., in West Donegal township, this county, has a goose forty-five years of age, and is still alive and apparently in good health. About seven years ago it laid eight eggs, since that none at all. Mr. Shenk has also on his premises a land tortoise, which he knows to be sixty-eight years of age.

—The Columbia Spy says that on Saturday evening last two boys, named Frank Burg, aged sixteen years, and William Charles, aged fourteen years, got into an altercation in a church in Washington borough, when angry words ensued, and an invitation to fight outside of the church was given, when they both went out and Burg attacked Charles, who drew a knife and stabbed Burg very dangerously in the region of the heart.

—About four o'clock Friday afternoon last, the next to the youngest child of Sheriff Albright, of Lewisburg, was left in a room with a stove, and in a very few moments came running down stairs screaming, his clothing all on fire, his flesh in places burned brown. He lingered in great distress, constantly demanding water, until about half-past two o'clock the next morning, when death came to his relief.—Lewisburg Chronicle.

—The Pottsville Journal gives the amount of anthracite coal sent from Pennsylvania to tide-water during the year 1867, at 12,650,571 tons, being an increase of 271,081 tons over the year 1866. Of semi-anthracite and bituminous reaching tide-water there were last year 2,255,838 tons, being a decrease of 82,588 tons from the preceding year. This gives an aggregate of 14,905,309 tons, and an increase of 188,693 tons.

—The Stockholders of the Neversink Fire Insurance Company, of this city have under consideration the propriety of changing the present name to "Reading Fire Insurance Company." This will be a decided improvement, as it more thoroughly identifies that organization with the city where it originated, and its head-quarters are located.—Reading Journal.

On Friday afternoon of last week, a son of Jonas Bonawitz, of Berrysburg, in this county, between nine and ten years of age, while on his way home from school was run over by a sled loaded with lime, and so severely injured that he expired in an hour afterwards.—Upper Dauphin Register.

—On Friday last, a little girl, aged about ten years, daughter of Mr. Shay, residing near the new bridge over the Railroad in Loudonsville, adjoining Altoona, was so severely burned that she died the following night.

—One night week before last the prisoners in the Columbia county jail escaped by digging through the wall. A reward of $100 for their return being offered, parties pursued and captured them.

—On Saturday last two fifty barrel oil wells were struck in the vicinity of Pithole—one on the territory of the United States Petroleum Company, and the other on the Bean Farm.

NEWS BY TELEGRAPH.

—Jeremiah Williams, of Oakham, Massachusetts, and Robert D. Briggs, one of the wealthiest farmers of Auburn, Maine, committed suicide by hanging on Sunday. The former hung himself in the cellar of his own house.

—The palace car City of Chicago, running on the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy railroad, took fire about twelve o'clock on Saturday night, from the explosion of a kerosene lamp, and was totally destroyed. The passengers escaped without injury.

—The Arkansas Convention met and adjourned until Wednesday, to caucus and give the Committee on Constitution time to arrange its phraseology, with a view to bringing the Convention to an early close.

Eighteen prisoners escaped from jail at St. Joseph Mo., on Saturday. During the melee Horace Fish, brother of Sheriff Fish, was shot and killed, and one prisoner was severely wounded.

—The strike on the Memphis, Clarksville & Nashville road has been adjusted, and trains will run regular hereafter.

—At Erie, on the night of the 2d inst., "Wayne Hall," with the stores beneath it, were destroyed by fire. Loss $50,000.

—The United States steamer Wyoming, from China, arrived at Boston yesterday.

—Counterfeit tens on the National Market Bank of New York are in circulation.

—The reported illness of Commodore Vanderbilt proves untrue.

THE RAILROAD LAW.

The Free Railroad law was discussed till nearly eleven o'clock at night. Several sections passed second reading, and the bill was then made the special order for to-morrow evening.

THE OIL INSPECTOR'S BILL

Delegations of Oil Dealers from Pittsburgh and Philadelphia—Conference with Senators and Representatives—Changes Determined upon.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

HARRISBURG, Feb. 3d, 1868.

A special dispatch from Harrisburg, says: This afternoon large delegations of Oil traders from Pittsburgh and Philadelphia held a conference with Senators and Representatives from said localities in relation to a bill pending in the Senate, read by Mr. Connell, authorizing the Governor to appoint an inspector of refined petroleum, kerosene and burning oils in Philadelphia. It was represented that the bill as introduced would give an annual income to the inspector of over one hundred thousand dollars and ruin the trade in the Commonwealth. The oil men are opposed to the bill. The changes determined upon will exempt from inspection oil in bond or for export, whale and lard oil. The bill will require the Inspector to give bond in twenty thousand dollars, and prohibits the Inspector from entering the United States bonded warehouses. The annual emoluments will be reduced to five thousand dollars, including two thousand for expenses.

The delegation also waited on the Governor.

The Petroleum Inspectorship.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

HARRISBURG, February 3, 1868.

We have got the Oil Inspector's bill altered, exempting all bonded oil. As it now reads, it is entirely satisfactory to us, and will pass in this form and be approved by the trade.

PETROLEUM COMMITTEE.

BOSTON.

Boards of Trade Convention.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

BOSTON, February 3.—The Boards of Trade Convention will meet and organize on Wednesday, and the entire body of strangers will be tendered a monster sleigh ride in the afternoon. On Thursday, after business is attended to, the public buildings will be visited, and in the evening a reception to the members will be given at Music Hall, the Mayor extending a welcome to Boston. Friday evening there will be a levee at the American House on the part of the merchants of the city.

FORTIETH CONGRESS.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, February 3, 1868.

SENATE.

Messrs. WILLEY and FESSENDEN presented petitions of officers of the late army, praying that they be paid the increased compensation due from May, 1864, to the close of the war. Referred.

Mr. FESSENDEN presented resolutions of the Maine Legislature in regard to taxes on National Banks. Referred.

Mr. CAMERON presented a memorial on the rights of American citizens abroad, praying the removal of Charles Francis Adams, Minister to England. Referred.

Mr. WILSON presented a petition from members of the Peace Society, praying for the appointment of Commissioners to Alaska to examine into the condition of the Indians. Referred.

Mr. POMEROY presented a memorial and resolutions of the Legislature of Kansas in regard to opening public lands, formerly Indian reservations, to settlement. Referred.

Mr. THAYER presented resolutions of citizens of Nebraska, in regard to the rights of American citizens abroad. Referred.

Mr. THAYER said that the state of public feeling made it advisable, in his opinion, that the Government should take some action on this subject. It would give the Government more respect to protect its citizens abroad than to purchase earthquakes.

Mr. WILSON presented a petition of army officers praying for an increase of pay, &c.

Mr. SHERMAN, from Committee on Finance, reported favorably on the House bill in regard to the taxation of shareholders in National Banks.

Mr. SHERMAN explained that it provided for the taxation of shares where the Bank is located, though belonging to non-residents.

Mr. NYE introduced a bill to promote the efficiency of the Indian Department. Referred.

Mr. WILSON introduced a bill to provide for the gradual reduction of the army of the United States and to discontinue unnecessary grades. Referred.

Mr. POMEROY introduced a bill granting lands and aid to a railroad from Fort Scott, Kansas, to Santa Fe. Referred.

Mr. WILSON introduced a bill requiring persons applying to Congress for extension or removal of certain patents to give public notice thereof.

Mr. WILSON called up the joint resolution placing certain troops in Missouri on an equal footing with others as to bounty. Passed.

Mr. POMEROY introduced a joint resolution relating to certain railroad grants in Michigan and Wisconsin, and providing for the extension of the time originally laid down for the completion of the road. Laid over.

Mr. COLE offered a resolution of inquiry as to securing a greater degree of safety, comfort, health and protection in the morals and better treatment to emigrants from abroad. Adopted.

Mr. NYE introduced a bill to promote efficiency in the Indian Department by the appointment of two Superintendents. Referred.

The morning hour having expired, the Chair announced the debate on reconstruction in order and Mr. Ferry entitled to the floor.

Mr. JOHNSON said he would not ask a vote in Senator Thomas' case until the reconstruction debate was terminated.

Mr. HENRY spoke at some length in favor of the reconstruction bill.

Mr. STEWART followed on the same side, when the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Bills and resolutions were introduced as follows:

To amend the law relative to promotion in the navy.

Relative to taxing National banks.

For the enforcement of contracts payable in coin.

To authorize the building of a military and postal railroad from Washington to New York.

Relative to naturalization laws—providing that any man may become a citizen, on application to any law court, on taking the usual oath.

To authorize the issue of $140,000,000 in legal tenders, to supply the deficiency caused by the cancellation of legal tender and compound interest notes.

To repeal the act concerning registering ships.

To provide for orphans of soldiers and sailors who died in the service, and an asylum for disabled veterans.

Relative to grants for a railroad in Minnesota.

For the relief of the Winnebago Indians.

Making grants of land in aid of a railroad from Fort Scott to Santa Fe.

To provide for the settlement of the war debt incurred in New Mexico in aid of the suppression of the rebellion and Indian hostilities.

For building a wagon road in Dakota.

To increase compensation of Registers and Receivers of Public Lands in Idaho.

In reference to pay and bounty of soldiers enlisted for a specified term of service and honorably discharged before the expiration of the term.

Amendatory of act of July 6th, 1866.

Relative to bridging the Mississippi river.

Removal of the National Capital to St. Louis.

In relation to claims of colored soldiers.

Making appropriation for improving harbors in Michigan.

To regulate charges of Express Companies.

In relation to taxation of United States notes, national currency, &c., for State and municipal purposes.

To establish a Department of Justice. The bill provides for a Secretary to be the head of the Law Department, for an Attorney General, a Solicitor General, and an Assistant for each; abolishes the office of Solicitor to departments and forbids the employment of special counsel by heads of departments, except where the whole force of the Law Department is inefficient. The Solicitor of the Court of Claims is also placed within the department.

Also, concerning American citizenship and the protection due to American citizens in foreign States. This bill is intended as a substitute for that now before the House. It declares the rights of expatriation and naturalization as part of the public law of the United States, and requires the Executive Department to afford such protection as may be within its powers to all American citizens transacting lawful business in all parts of the world, and to report at once to Congress any case where such may be interfered with or denied in any foreign country, in order that the Government may intervene with effect. It also provides that American citizenship may be lost by a naturalized citizen in any foreign country taking service under a foreign government, or leaving the country without intent to return. It excepts from the protection of the Government persons who expatriate themselves, who commit crimes in foreign countries, who have been abroad five years without paying taxes annually in the United States, who enter into the service of any belligerent contrary to neutrality laws, who return to their native countries with intent to resume their domicile there, who shall desert from actual service in army or navy in a foreign State, or have emigrated to avoid a conscription actually ordered.

The memorial and joint resolution of the Michigan Legislature concerning the improvements of the harbor of Manitowac, and concerning the rights of naturalized citizens in foreign countries, were referred.

Mr. HUBBARD, of West Virginia, offered a resolution directing the Secretary of War to transmit copies of all correspondence between him and the Executive limiting his authority as Secretary of War to issue orders, all correspondence between him and the General-in-Chief on the same subject, and all correspondence that may have been furnished him between the President and the General-in-Chief relating to the disobeying by the General of any orders of the War Department. Adopted.

Mr. CLEAVES offered a resolution instructing the Judiciary Committee to inquire whether additional legislation is necessary to eradicate the system of peonage and Indian slavery in New Mexico. Adopted.

The House proceeded to dispose of the resolutions heretofore offered, as follows: The resolution of Mr. Brooks, of New York, calling on the Secretary of War for copies of all General Orders promulgated by the several commanders of the five Military Districts or Pentarchies at the South.

Mr. BLAINE remarked the resolution was not respectful in its terms, and moved to lay it on the table.

Mr. BROOKS asked for the yeas and nays on that motion.

Mr. BLAINE said he had no objection to the resolution if the offensive expression about Pentarchies was omitted.

Mr. BROOKS admitted Pentarchies was rather a hard word, and he would strike it out.

Mr. ELDRIDGE wanted to know how the word was any worse than the fact.

Mr. BLAINE withdrew his motion, and the resolution of Mr. Brooks being modified, was adopted.

After further debate the resolution, at the expiration of the hour, went over.

The House resumed the consideration of the Kentucky contested election case, Mr. KERR speaking in favor of Mr. Brown's right to the seat.

Mr. KERR, in defending Mr. Brown from any criminality in connection with the letter written by him to the Louisville Courier, and which is the basis of the report against him, said however foolish and unadvised that letter was, it had not been followed by any act of criminality. He had heard many equally foolish statements made even by members of the House, some of them going so far as to declare that if the President of the United States did not do certain things he would find his Brufus.

Mr. PRICE asked whether he had made that statement in reference to Andrew Johnson finding his Brutus?

Mr. KERR stated he had.

Mr. PRICE declared the thing was entirely new to him. Being a part and parcel of the House, he wished to deny that any member, on his side of the House at least, had ever given utterance to such a sentiment, and if he was mistaken, he asked the gentleman from Indiana to give names.

Mr. KERR said the gentleman knew very well it was impossible to carry in one's memory all the names and speeches. He had made the assertion from memory, and he would reassert it, notwithstanding the gentleman's memory was inconsistent with his own. He did not undertake to give the precise words uttered, but simply to give the idea.

Mr. PRICE said he had declared as emphatically and as positively as he could express himself that no man on his side of the House had, during this or any other session of Congress, in the House or out of the House, made use of any such expression, and he wished it to go to the country that the Republican party in the United States did not think enough of Andrew Johnson, or so little of itself, as to descend to a point where, under any circumstances, it would furnish him with a Brutus. (Laughter.)

Mr. KERR remarked, disclaiming any personal allusion. It had been said outside of the House by a very distinguished member of the House—that the time might come when the President would find himself, after the convening of Congress, suspended between heaven and earth.

Mr. WELKER inquired whether Mr. Kerr referred to a statement published as having been made by the Speaker?

Mr. KERR said he did not.

Mr. WELKER—If so, I beg leave to say—

Mr. KERR (interrupting) said he had answered the gentleman's question.

Mr. WELKER desired, in justice to the gentleman who had the honor of presiding over the House, to correct a statement which he had seen frequently published in Democratic papers throughout the country in reference to a speech made by the Speaker of the House, in his (Mr. Welker's) town of Wooster, Ohio, where the Speaker was represented as having used words in reference to President Johnson similar to those quoted by the gentleman from Indiana, (Mr. Kerr.) He (Mr. Welker) was present on that occasion and heard the speech. It contained no such declaration. The Speaker had been alluding to the prevalent newspaper reports that the President of the United States would prevent the Fortieth Congress from assembling in pursuance of its adjournment, and he remarked in that connection that while he did not himself believe any such report, yet if the President, or any other official person, did overthrow and depose the law making power of the nation by force, by preventing the representatives of the people from assembling to discharge their duties, he would find himself in a condition, after being tried and convicted of treason against the government, of being suspended as a punishment for so wicked a crime. No remark that could be constructed into a threat against the President was made by the Speaker on that occasion. The version of the speech published in the newspapers was not a correct version.

Mr. KERR remarked it was not necessary for him to repeat his disclaimer.

On motion of Mr. TRIMBLE the further consideration of the Kentucky case was postponed until the 11th of February, in order that Mr. Brown might have an opportunity of addressing the House.

The SPEAKER presented communications as follows:

From the Secretary of State, urging the necessity of further appropriations towards defraying the expenses of employing copying clerks, to enable the Department to answer certain calls for information.

From the same, with a statement of disbursements from the Contingent fund.

From the Secretary of the Treasury relative to special agents and detectives employed in the Treasury Department since June 1st, 1866.

From the same relative to the discontinuance of the Champaign suits in New York.

All were appropriately referred.

Mr. PILE'S resolution, offered December 16th, directing the Secretary of the Treasury to report whether, since July last, any National Banks have changed their securities held in the Treasury to secure the circulation of Government deposits, and requiring him to make no further changes in the funded securities, by payment or otherwise, except of interest, until further legislation or order of Congress.

Mr. BUTLER spoke in support and explanation of the resolution, charging the Secretary of the Treasury with increasing the expenses of the Government by permitting a change of seven-thirties currency interest into six per cent. gold interest bearing bonds.

Mr. BLAINE remarked the seven-thirty notes bore on their face the stipulation that they were exchangable for five-twenties, and said the gentlemen from Missouri and Massachusetts were proposing by resolution of the House to put through, under the thumbscrew of the previous question, in two minutes and a half, a negative in the contract. That was the whole of the resolution.

M. ROBINSON asked leave to offer a resolution, reciting at considerable length the facts and allegations in the cases of Stephen J. Meany, John Warren, W. J. Nagle, and other American citizens arrested and imprisoned in Ireland, and requesting the President of the United States to institute an immediate examination into the facts recited in the preamble, and, if found true, to demand the immediate release of such American citizens as had been convicted for words or deeds spoken or done in the United States; to demand an immediate new trial or liberty for any American citizens denied of his challenge to the array of the jury on the ground of perpetual allegiance; to demand the immediate release of W. J. Nagle, and if the demand was not complied with, to order the arrest and detention in custody of any subjects of Great Britain who may be found within the jurisdiction of the United States, and withdraw all intercourse of the United States with Great Britain.

The SPEAKER asked whether there was an objection to the resolution being offered?

Mr. BINGHAM said he should object, unless the gentleman from New York changed the language of the resolution in some respects. In the first place, the resolution authorized the detention of British subjects, a direct violation of the law of nations. The gentleman should know that the persons of Ambassadors were by the universal judgment of mankind under the protection of law, and that no national exigency would justify the violation of the protection of their persons.

The SPEAKER said he understood that as an objection to the resolution, although it was at some length.

Mr. BINGHAM said he would object unless the resolution was modified.

Mr. ROBINSON professed himself ready to modify in any way to suit the sentiment of the House, which he knew to be sound. He was not particular about the language; he was willing to exclude Ministers, Consuls, Ambassadors, &c. He subsequently permitted Mr. PRUYN to modify it by striking out the clause authorizing reprisals and substituting for it a direction to the President to report the facts to Congress without delay.

Mr. BANKS remarked there was no official information on which the resolution could be predicated or justified. He was informed by the State Department that the papers in these cases were voluminous, and that they would be prepared for the use of the House with the utmost expedition. He thought it best for all interested that no action should be taken till the papers were received.

Mr. ROBINSON said the reason he asked for this action was that something should be done for those who, without any crime, were lingering and rotting in British dungeons. He wanted to have the British Lion taught the time was passed when it could trample upon American citizens. He wanted to have the President, Secretary of State and the American people roused from their lethargy on that subject. The members of the House would be unworthy of being American citizens if they slept one night while their flag was being lowered and while the bird which should soar was in the gutter beneath the ignoble foot that tramples on it.

After further discussion, objection being made to the offering of the resolution, Mr. ROBINSON moved to suspend the rules.

They were suspended—yeas, ninety-six; nays, thirty—and the resolution was introduced.

Mr. BINGHAM said this was a question which touched the peace of nations, and it should be referred to the Committee on Foreign Affairs, with leave to report at any time. It struck him the resolution on its face put the issues of peace and war in the hands of the President. The House could not transfer that power to any one. It was written in the resolution that the President should demand unconditionally the immediate release of certain persons. Every one knows it was the right of every sovereignty to hold every man, of whatever nation or allegiance, to answer before its tribunal of justice for violation of its own laws within its own jurisdiction. He was willing to vindicate the sovereignty of the American people, but he was not willing the President should be invested with that general power of demanding the immediate and unconditional release of American citizens charged with crime. There was no member, not even the member who introduced the resolution, who could say on his oath as a representative of the people that the persons named in the resolution were not held for crimes committed within the jurisdiction of England. If they were so held, they must continue to be so held. He trusted the gentleman (Mr. Robinson) would see the importance of referring the question to the Committee on Foreign Affairs. It was a matter which touched the peace of the republic, and, which was the most important, the honor of the Commonwealth. Were they going to set up the miserable precedent that a subject of England or France or any other power could commit crimes with impunity within the jurisdiction of the United States? For himself, he claimed that whoever, from any quarter of the world, violated American laws within its jurisdiction should be held to answer for it before an American tribunal of justice, and what he claimed for the United States he conceded to all other nations.

Mr. ROBINSON said in reply to one of Mr. Bingham's remarks, that some of the persons referred to in his resolution were held for words spoken and deeds done in the United States, and referred to the statement by Baron Fitzgerald, on the trial of Stephen J. Meany, that that was so, and that there were enough men there (meaning Ireland) to delay until eternity's bell rung the vindication of the rights of American citizens.

Mr. BINGHAM reminded Mr. Robinson that without an authenticated copy of the record the House could not know what the judge said on that trial.

Mr. ROBINSON held that the statement having appeared in the Dublin Irishman, and never having been contradicted, was to be taken as true, and asked how long were American citizens, over a hundred in number, and equal in intelligence to the men surrounding him, to be kept within the grasp of the British Lion.

After an animated discussion in the same strain by Messrs. ROBINSON, BINGHAM, HIGBEE, ELDRIDGE and BANKS, the latter taking the ground that the passage of the resolution would be an evasion by the House of its own duties and shifting the responsibility on the President,

Mr. ROBINSON moved the previous question. The House refused to second the previous question, and, on motion of Mr. BANKS, the resolution was referred to the Committee on Foreign Affairs by a vote of eighty yeas and thirty-seven nays.

Adjourned.

SOUTHERN STATES.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

VIRGINIA.

RICHMOND, February 3.—In the Convention to-day three sections of the ordinance on the Executive Department were adopted. The Governor is to serve for four years, and not be eligible for a succeeding term. He shall be thirty years old, a citizen of the United States twenty years, and a citizen of Virginia five years.

NORTH CAROLINA.

RALEIGH, February 3.—The Convention was engaged most of the session today in discussing the ordinance in favor of the Wilmington, Charlotte and Rutherford Road, providing for the State's endorsement of a million of dollars in bonds, and cancelling and destroying a million and a half of the mortgage of four millions authorized by the General Assembly of 1866-7. After a lengthy consideration the ordinance was passed.

SOUTH CAROLINA.

CHARLESTON, Feb. 3.—In the Convention to-day Mr. Rainey, colored, offered a resolution declaring to the people of South Carolina and the world that the Convention has no lands at its disposal; that no confiscation act has been passed by Congress, and in the belief of members none ever will be, and the only way for the landless to obtain land is by purchase.

A white delegate offered a resolution that an investment of the funds of the estates of infants and unmarried women in Confederate or State securities by administrators and executors may be recovered in lawful money. A bitter discussion followed on the ordinance invalidating contracts based on slave labor. The tone of the Convention is growing more conservative.

GEORGIA.

SAVANNAH, Feb. 3.—The Military Commission to investigate the charges against the Mayor has commenced an examination of witnesses with closed doors.

ATLANTA, February 3.—The Convention to-day discussed the relief question without coming to a vote.

Gen. Meade has issued an order modifying General Pope's order, as follows:

First—All papers, except such as threaten an appointee or officer with violence or future prosecutions, are to be allowed to receive advertisements of State or municipal laws and ordinances. Second, Where there is but one paper in a county, it may receive such advertisement, irrespective of its policy. Third, All military and civil officers, registers and persons in military employ in the Third Military District, are to see this order enforced. Opposition to reconstruction, when conducted in a legitimate manner, is not to be considered an offence.

O. C. Richardson, one of the extreme Radical delegates in the Convention, was shot and dangerously wounded to-night by a Radical politician of this city.

MISSISSIPPI.

JACKSON, Feb. 3.—In the Convention to-day the Printing Committee submitted a new report of the compensation to be allowed to the official printer. The clause reads as follows: "For advertising and publishing official proceedings in the State Journal, Vicksburg Republican and Merida Chronicle, seventy-five cents per square for the first insertion and twenty-five cents per square for each subsequent insertion." The report was ordered to be printed.

The Committee on Education submitted a report providing for a public school fund, a General Superintendent of Education and a Superintendent for each county, which was ordered to be printed.

A resolution was adopted requiring the Convention tax collectors to take Convention scrip in payment for the special tax.

A resolution was offered providing that if the Convention remains in session forty-five days the per diem should stop after that time, pending which the Convention adjourned.

TEXAS.

NEW ORLEANS, February 3.—The revision of the Registration list of Texas, ended on the 31st. General Hancock has ordered the publication of the revised lists in the county papers, and in the form of hand bills, to be distributed and posted in the most conspicuous places. The expenses of printing and distributing are to be paid from the reconstruction fund.

It is said General Hancock has been petitioned to extend the time for revision, but refused on the ground that the time provided by law had expired, and the publication will prevent fraud.

NEW YORK, February 3, 1868.

SPECIAL AGENT DISMISSED.

Stephen R. Pinckney, Special Agent of the Treasury Department and member of the Metropolitan Revenue Board, was to-day notified by the Secretary of the Treasury that his services were no longer needed.

SALE OF 10-40s—INCREASE OF PUBLIC DEBT.

A report from Washington says the Secretary of the Treasury sold fifteen millions of 10-40s during last month; also, that the February statement of the public debt will show an increase of nearly twenty millions, owing to the inadequacy of the revenue.

PACIFIC RAILROAD BONDS.

The continued and increasing demand for first mortgage bonds of the Central Pacific Railroad Company has led to a further advance in price to par and interest.

GREAT BRITAIN.

THE GALE ON SATURDAY—DESTRUCTION OF LIFE AND PROPERTY.

LONDON, Feb. 3.—The gale which passed over England on Saturday last was very destructive to life and property in this city and Liverpool. Chimneys and signs were blown down and houses unroofed. Many people were struck by falling objects, and seriously injured and in some instances killed outright.

FRANCE.

LIBERTY OF THE PRESS.

PARIS, February 3.—The journals of this city generally deplore the tone and tendency of the debate in the Corps Legislatif on the bill for the regulation of the press. They think the opposition to the measure will cause its withdrawal by the Government, and fear the final result will be the extinction of whatever liberty the press of the country may still possess.

PORTS OPENED FOR COMMERCE.

LONDON, Feb. 3.—Dispatches from Japan via Hong Kong announce the ports of Hiogo and Osaka were, at the beginning of the year, thrown open to foreign countries in accordance with the Convention made with the Commissioners of foreign powers.

MARINE DISASTER.

PORTION OF A CREW RESCUED—TERRIBLE SUFFERING.

GIBRALTER, January 31.—The captain and two sailors of the crew of the schooner Moses Warring, which foundered at sea, were rescued on the 18th ult. by the bark Minnie Gordon, and brought to this port. They had been seven days without food. To sustain life they were obliged to resort to the flesh of the mate, who died from exhaustion. When picked up the men were hardly able to move or speak, but they are now recovering.

WASHINGTON, February 3, 1868.

RUMORED RESIGNATION OF MINISTER ADAMS.

An authenticated rumor prevails to-day in Congressional circles that Mr. Adams has resigned his position as Minister to England.

TREASURY REORGANIZATION.

The Secretary of the Treasury sent to Senator Sherman to-day a communication, which was laid before the Senate, in favor of the bill now pending for the reorganization of the Treasury Department.

SUCCESSOR TO COMMISSIONER ROLLINS.

Mr. Wisewell, who has so frequently been mentioned for Commissioner of Internal Revenue, was to-day nominated by the President as the successor to Mr. Rollins, the present incumbent.

KIT CARSON.

General Kit Carson arrived last night from Colorado and this morning called on the Secretary of the Interior and the Commissioner of Indian Affairs. He is accompanied by Launlache, one of the principal chiefs of the Utah Nations. Their visit has reference to treaty matters. Everything is reported quiet among the Indians of the far west. Carson also had interviews with Generals Grant, Sherman and Sheridan, this morning.

TO BE RETIRED.

Brevet Major General T. J. Wood, Colonel of the 2d Cavalry, and Brevet Colonel O. A. Mack, Major of the 9th Cavalry, have been ordered before the Retiring Board.

INTERNAL REVENUE.

The receipts of the Internal Revenue to-day were $1,484,882.

MEMPHIS.

Policeman Shot—Prostitute Stabbed—Fatal Affray Between Freedmen—Policeman Shoots a Freedman—A Military Guard in the Court Room—Excitement in Consequence.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

MEMPHIS, February 3.—Policeman Johnson was shot in the shoulder on Saturday night while attempting to separate two men fighting at a ball on De Soto street.

Annie Melrose, a notorious prostitute, was stabbed very seriously in a bagnio on Washington street, on the same night, by Joe Luxton, in a fit of jealousy. Her recovery is doubtful.

Ned Blackburn was shot and killed by Butler Phillips in an alley, between Commerce and Winchester streets, this morning. Both were freedmen. Nothing is known in regard to the cause.

Eli. Guthrie, freedmen, was shot on the corner of Cansey and Linden streets this morning by policeman Sweat, who was attempting to arrest him for arson and robbery.

An excitement was caused in the Criminal Court this morning during the Avalanche contempt case, by the appearance of a squad of soldiers under Lieutenant Hunton, Twenty-fifth Infantry, who reported to Judge Hunter. They were, by his orders, stationed about the court room. Several attornies protested against the proceedings, and Duncan K. McRae left the Court, saying he would never practice in it under such circumstances. The troops were subsequently withdrawn by order of General Granger, and the Court adjourned until to-morrow, when the decision will be made known.

—Mormonism once had a home in Kirtland, Ohio. The "temple" of the early colony still remains in a very fair state of preservation, considering the length of time it has been built and the little care bestowed in keeping it in repair. There is but a small remnant of the "faithful" still resident there, who occasionally meet to worship in the building once their pride and boast. Most of them followed the fortunes of their prophet to the western wilds.

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

Economy Society.

We publish below a circular addressed by this Society to their correspondents and friends. It announces the new arrangement made necessary by the death of the venerable patriarch and head of the Society, than whom no man in this part of the State was more esteemed for intelligence and purity of character. It will be seen that Mr. Jacob Henrici, for many years well known as the associate Trustee and active business man of the Society, is now the senior Trustee and presiding Elder, and that Mr. Jonathan Lenz takes the place heretofore so honorably and ably occupied by Mr. Henrici. We have had many years' acquaintance with these gentlemen personally and with other members of the Council of Elders, and think the Society has displayed its customary sound judgment in the arrangement now made public. Mr. Lenz is a gentleman of more than ordinary intelligence, and possesses the entire confidence of the outside community, as well as of his associates. He is a man of fine presence, agreeable manners, and much experience in and aptness for business:

DIED IN THE LORD,

On the morning of the 11th of January, 1868, in his 75th year, Brother Romelius L. Baker, in full trust in the all-sufficient merits of his dear Saviour, Jesus Christ, whom he loved unswervingly with his whole heart, and whom, in the person of his brethren, ever since the founding of the Society in 1805, he served unto death with unspotted fidelity. Since the lamented departure of George Rapp, the highly beloved Founder of the Harmony Society, in 1847, he was Presiding Elder, the Principal Trustee, and the Religious Leader and Speaker of the said Community.

He is now succeeded by Brother Jacob Henrici, who is about 10 years his junior, and who, since 1832, has been closely associated with him in similar offices, and who, under Father Rapp's and his guidance, was initiated into the business of the Society.

As his fellow Trustee, there was this day elected Brother Jonathan Lenz, who was born in the Society in 1807, was raised by the same, and which he always served most faithfully, and by which he was elected in 1847 a member of the Council of Elders, in which capacity he has served ever since with fidelity.

The general business of the Society will therefore henceforward be done in the name of Henrici and Lenz, Trustees; and all Deeds and similar documents will be executed and signed in the names of Jacob Henrici and Jonathan Lenz, Trustees, in conformity to the Articles of Association, duly recorded in Beaver county, Penna.

JACOB HENRICI,
JONATHAN LENZ,
Economy, Jan. 13, 1868. Trustees.

Police Instructions.

Captain Reed, of the Night Watch, at ten o'clock roll-call last evening, instructed the members of the force in their duties. They were requested to make themselves familiar with the location of the fire boxes, so that there might be no delay in giving alarms, and were directed to prevent teams driving in closer proximity to each other, at street crossings, than fifteen feet, and to stop "coasting" on the streets. The stated roll-calls will be at six a. m., two and ten p. m., and when a member is absent a substitute will be put on in his place, and any member of the force failing to report to the Captain after he has been relieved will not receive credit for the day.

The instructions are all very well as far as they go, but there are surely other evils to which the authorities should turn their attention, prominent among which are fast driving and street loafing.

Election of Officers

The stockholders of the National Refining and Storing Company held a meeting at the Board of Trade Rooms yesterday. M. De Lange, Esq., was called to the chair, and Col. Robert Monroe appointed Secretary.

A full report of the condition of the Company, and of its operations for the past year, was presented by the Directors and unanimously approved, and the thanks of the stockholders voted to officers and directors for their full statement and successful management of the Company's affairs. An election was then held, which resulted as follows:

President.—David Kirk.
Treasurer.—John Birmingham.
Secretary.—John McKirdy.
Directors.—David Kirk, Dr. J. T. Gallaher, A. F. Marthens, Arthur Kirk, M. De Lange, James Old, Dr. Wm. Bachop, A. M. Hammet, A. L. Robinson.

The Morrises.

Bridget and Mark Morris reside in Keef's Court, or rather Mark resides there and Bridget stays there when Mark will allow her to do so. Bridget, it appears, is fond of her liquor and is in the habit of imbibing rather freely, when, as Mark alleges, she becomes boisterous and unruly. Sunday Bridget by some means best known to herself got an overdose of the "crathur," and when Mark came home in the evening she was having a high time, whereupon he ejected her from the premises, and threatened to do her violence if she returned. Bridget, fearing he would make his word good, remained out in the cold all night, and yesterday morning, after having replenished herself with liquor, appeared before Alderman McMasters and made information against Mark for surety of the peace. A warrant was issued for the arrest of the unfeeling husband.

The Western Penitentiary.

Col. Geo. A. Shellenberger, the newly appointed Warden of the Western Penitentiary, assumed the duties of that office yesterday morning. Col. Shallenberger is a gentlemanly and accommodating man, and will doubtless make an excellent officer, and while we feel gratified at the selection of the Colonel to fill the position, we deeply regret the loss of the former worthy and efficient officer, Dr. Hugh Campbell, who we learn will return to his former residence at Uniontown, Pa., and retire from public life. Since his appointment as Warden, Dr. Campbell, by his genial manners, gentlemanly and christian bearing has made a host of friends, who will part with him with heartfelt regret. His many firm friends and acquaintances at Uniontown will however hail his return with pleasure.

Street Loafing.

Mayor Drum we learn has decided to break up the practice of street loafing which is indulged in to a considerable extent in Allegheny, and has instructed the police to arrest every street loafer who comes under their observation. Yesterday in accordance with the instructions the officers arrested three loafers at the corner of Federal street and North Avenue, two of whom were fined three dollars and costs each, and the third one discharged. The same system might be adopted on this side of the river, and we think it would meet with almost general approbation, except to the loafers themselves.

Vigilant Fire Company.

The members of the Vigilant Fire Company held an election last evening, when the following named gentlemen were re-elected as officers for the ensuing year: President, David Fitzsimmons; Vice President, John M'Kinley; Treasurer, W. J. Casson; Secretary, J. J. Albeitz; Assistant Secretary, J. H. Drexter; Foreman, Abner Updegraff; First Assistant Foreman, David Herbert; Second Assistant Foreman, Patrick Kearney; Board of Directors, Robert Elliott, W. J. Patterson, J. Petrie and W. H. Brown; Delegate to Firemen's Association, J. J. Torley.

Fire.—The alarm of fire between six and seven o'clock yesterday morning, which proceeded from box No. 5, at the Eagle engine house, was occasioned by a slight fire in the cellar of S. S. Fowler's machine shop, corner of West and Water streets, which was extinguished before the engines arrived. The fire originated from the furnace. The damage was very slight.

Mr. Dabbs has returned from the East, and is prepared to furnish the beautiful porcelain pictures at reduced prices. Mr. Dabbs would also say that hereafter he will be found daily in the operating room and will attend to the giving of positions in person. Nos. 46 and 48 St Clair street, Pittsburgh, Pa.

A Magnificent Time Peice at J. R. Reed & Co., No. 68 Fifth Street.

"Reed's time" has long been recognized as the standard whereby to measure with truth and accuracy life's fleeting moments, and by it thousands of watches and clocks are regulated daily. This time is universally recognized as true and correct and the pulse of industry in our busy city beats to its finely drawn seconds, minutes and hours. Not to improve the time recorded so faithfully, but to increase the high reputation the house enjoys, J. R. Reed & Co., the proprietors of the popular jewelry and watch and clock establishment, No. 68 Fifth street, have just received one of the best time regulators ever manufactured in this country, made by those famous makers E. Howard & Co., Boston. It is furnished with a compensating mercurial pendulum, so perfectly adjusted that the clock will run through all variations of temperature with no appreciable variations of rate. This pendulum is of thirty-five pounds weight, and so perfect is the mechanism of the clock that it is run with a weight of only a pound and a half, hung to a slender cord, like a fishing line. The clock has jeweled pivot holes and escapement. The finish of the time piece is very fine and the general appearance of it is worthy of so perfect a piece of mechanism. It has been placed on a stone pier which rises through the floor, and the foundations of which are sunk deep in the ground, so that no jarring of the building will affect it in the least. It is highly creditable to the enterprise of Messrs. Reed & Co. and is another evidence of their determination to keep the lead in matters pertaining to "Old time."

Black Crook.

This spectacle was brought out at the Opera House last night, and if not with all its original New York grandeur, at least with as much as, if not more than we could expect in our city. Manager Canning has evidently devoted a good deal of time and care to getting up the spectacle, and has succeeded to such an extent as to deserve great praise for his taste exhibited in the choice of costumes and dancers. Terese Antonino is a danseuse of the first rank, equalled by but few in this country, and at one time a reigning star at Niblo's. Pennoyer is not as good but still is very good indeed, and the coryphees and corps supported admirably. The cast too was good, and the parts of Dame Barbara and Carline were notably well done, but we never saw a worse Greppo (and we have seen several) and whether it was the fire, or the water, or what was more probable, the fire-water, the person who assumed that part was unfit to do so and the audience was not bashful in showing its displeasure. It is hardly necessary to mention that the manager was as much annoyed as was the audience at this contretemps, the only thing which clouded the success of the new piece, which, judging by the crowd last night, will have a long and prosperous run.

Allegheny Police.

The new police force of Allegheny was organized and the members sworn in by Mayor Drum Saturday afternoon. The day force comprises six members, with William Bowden as Chief, and the night force consists of twelve, with Mr. James M. Hunter as Captain. Mr. Samuel Long, ex-Chief, who had been appointed on the night force, tendered his resignation, which was accepted and James Greenwood appointed to fill the vacancy until the next meeting of the Police Committee. It is stated that the Committee will present an ordinance at the next meeting of Councils authorizing the increase of the day force to fourteen and the night force to twenty-four, and it is the intention of the Committee to provide the policemen with uniform caps.

Relief for the Poor.—The Union Skating Park Association has generously appropriated the proceeds of the Park on to-morrow (Wednesday) in aid of the friends of "The Ladies' Association for the Relief of the Poor." Let this noble offer, for a noble cause be nobly responded to. What is more exhilarating and graceful than skating? What is more Heaven born than charity? Readers give a little time and a little money that the poor may be succored and that grace may abound.

Assault and Battery.—Edward Dawson made information before Alderman Taylor, yesterday, against James and Ann Cowley, charging them with assault and battery. The defendants reside on Locust street, in the Fifth ward, and it appears that the prosecutor, having some business with James Cowley, went there on Sunday morning for the purpose of settling it, when, as he alleges, the accused attacked and beat him in a brutal manner. A warrant was issued for the arrest of the accused.

Prisoner Arrived.—Thomas McCormick, arrested in New York city, charged with complicity in the larceny or burglary at the house of Samuel Rea, President of the Peoples' Bank, in this vicinity, in September last, arrived in this city yesterday and was placed in prison. A lady's gold watch, marked "Anna Rea, July 9, 1863," found upon his person, was received by express from John A. Kennedy, Superintendent of the Metropolitan Police, New York, by District Attorney Duff.

The Skating Tournament commences this afternoon. Ladies and gentlemen wishing to enter for the local contests will please do so before two o'clock. The five hundred dollar gold and diamond Championship Medal can be seen at the Rink this afternoon.

Removed to Hospital.—John McFetridge, confined in the county jail on a charge of larceny, having been attacked with small pox, was removed to a hospital by order of Court, yesterday.

Fire in the Seventh Ward.

About half-past one o'clock this morning a fire occurred on Warren street, between Bedford and Webster streets, in the Seventh ward, by which the residence of John Owens and all its contents, excepting the beds, were destroyed. The house was a two story frame, with a basement kitchen, where it is thought the fire originated. The family were asleep at the time, and were awakened by the smoke, which was so dense as to almost suffocate them. By the time the children, of whom there were six, were got out of the building, it was all in flames. The fire was communicated to the one story frame house adjoining, occupied by John M'Murray, which was partially destroyed. The contents of the house were saved. The alarm was sounded from box 56, at the corner of Webster and Arthurs streets, to which the fire department responded promptly, but owing to the great distance the engines had to travel, the house was almost consumed before they got there. The loss is estimated at $2,500.

The Church Fair.—On Tuesday, the 11th inst., at Lafayette Hall, the Fair and Festival to be held by the ladies of Pennsylvania Avenue M. E. Church, will commence. The attractions presented will be very great, and the Fair will undoubtedly be a great success. Among the attractions will be an immense cake, made and presented by Mrs. Rial, of the Merchants Hotel. This cake will contain sixty pounds of fruit.

Sheep Stolen.—Mr. Thomas Beilstein yesterday morning placed a sheep in the stable of Mr. Geib, Third ward, Allegheny, and about ten o'clock, some "evil disposed person" with the love of mutton strong upon him, wilfully and feloniously did take, steal and carry away said sheep. The police officers were notified of the transaction, but as yet have failed to discover any traces of the "lost sheep."

Monthly Bulletin.—The well known and extensive book and job printing establishment of W. S. Haven has adopted a system of Monthly Bulletins, printing and publishing neat cards which not only contain the calendar of the current month, but likewise the arrival and departure of trains on the various railroads centering in the city. The cards are gotten up in the fine style for which the house is noted.

Exhibition Western University.—The exhibition to be given by the students of Western University this evening will be one of much interest. The instructor in elocution, Mr. N. B. Crysler, is a gentleman of great ability in his department, and is very popular here. The parts are original and selected. A good band will be in attendance.

Passed Through.—The members of the Board of Trade of Chicago, Cincinnati and Milwaukee passed through the city yesterday morning en route for Boston, in a special train of Silver Palace Cars. We did not learn the object of the trip, but presume it to be something connected with the business interests of the cities they represent.

Board of Control.—The Board of School Controllers of Allegheny city meet this evening at half past seven o'clock in the Common Council Chamber, Allegheny city, for the purpose of organizing and transacting any other business that may be brought before them.

Meeting of the Prison Committee.—A meeting of the Prison Committee will be held this afternoon at the rooms of the Young Men's Christian Association, Fifth street. A full attendance is desired as matters of interest will be brought before the meeting.

Coroner's Inquest.—The jury impannelled by Coroner Clawson to inquire into the manner and cause of the death of Fritz Black, a notice of which was published yesterday, met at ten a. m. yesterday and rendered a verdict of death from apoplexy.

The Weather.—Yesterday was the coldest day of the season. At nine o'clock in the morning the Mercury stood at four and a half degrees below zero.

City Councils.—A meeting of the Pittsburgh City Councils will be held this afternoon at two o'clock.

CITY ITEMS.

Gettysburg Asylum.

We are in receipt of a circular copy of defence addressed to the National Legislature by General Manager Hitchcock, of the Gettysburg Asylum enterprise, in answer to the charges made by Gen. Van Wyck, M. C., against that popular movement. Its argument is clear and unanswerable. The following points are settled: 1. The character, honesty and patriotism of those concerned in the enterprise. 2. The praiseworthy object of the association to provide a National Asylum or home for the disabled Union soldiers of the late war. 3. That the attacks of Mr. Van Wyck were made on unjust and mistaken grounds. In defiance of the warfare urged against this noble enterprise, the loyal and patriotic masses are welding together as a solid, and by steady, material aid are contributing largely to the success of the enterprise. The New York Herald, in a leading editorial recently put the enterprise forward in clear and just light, adding its strong endorsement and inviting continued efforts on the part of the public to aid and encourage the noble work of patriotism being pushed forward. Mr. E. R. Gardner at Hoffman, Hoene & Co.'s popular music store, No. 53 Fifth street, is sole agent for the enterprise in this city, and parties desiring to invest will receive from him all necessary information.

Grand Masquerade and Fancy Carnival at the Rink, Thursday evening, February 6th. Costume tickets must be procured at the Rink before the night of the masquerade.

Good Goods at Gold Prices.—Having marked down my goods to gold prices I will sell my entire stock of boots and shoes of all kinds for gents, ladies, misses, and boys, at prices lower than they have been sold since the war. More of those slightly damaged Muslins at Barker's, to-day.

—The Muscatine (Iowa) Courier says that a little boy, son of Mr. Webb, of Marengo, fell backwards into a boiler of hot water and severely scalded his shoulders, and that some kind of oil was applied and the little sufferer placed in bed. Shortly afterwards another oil was rubbed on his shoulders over the first. The little fellow soon screamed piteously, and smoke was observed rising from the bed. An examination resulted in the discovery that the sheets were on fire, and that the boy's back was literally roasted. Indeed, so severe were his injuries that he died in a few hours. Physicians who were called gave the opinion that the mixed oils applied to the first burn had produced spontaneous combustion, which had ignited the sheets.

The Pittsburgh Gazette

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 4, 1868.

In our local columns will be found a protest, signed by many highly respectable firms, doing business on Liberty street, against the project, now pending before the Legislature, to establish a line of horse railroad through that avenue. We are requested to call attention to this protest.

It is proposed to build a line of railroad between Zanesville and Cleveland. Such a road would pay largely and greatly enhance the value of property along the route, and contribute much to the prosperity of Cleveland, Wooster, Millsburg, Medina and Zanesville.

In a recent case in New York, the Court sustained a claim for damages against the Central Railroad Company, in consequence of injuries occasioned by a broken rail. It was held that common carriers of persons were bound to furnish trustworthy vehicles, irrespective of all questions of negligence.

The programme of the exhibition of the Western University, noticed among our items for this evening, reads most attractively. It is no more than these young aspirants after the crown of eloquence have a right expect, that the University hall should be filled to its utmost capacity. Prof. N. B. Crysler, who had the students in training for the occasion, will give recitations during the evening.

After the restoration of Secretary Stanton the President subsided into a condition of quietude, without attempting any of the energetic acts he promised to perform if the Office Tenure bill was enforced in the case of that gentleman. He has, within a day or two, broken out against Mr. Rollins, threatening to disregard the law of Congress in his consuming zeal to maintain what he conceives to be the true interpretation of the Constitution.

BOOMING OF THE ALLEGHENY.

For many years a famous boom has spanned the Susquehanna river at Williamsport. The object of this devise is to catch and detain saw logs, cast into the stream, higher up, and marked with the names or brands of the respective owners thereof. It is a matter of dispute whether this contrivance has promoted the common welfare of the men who are engaged in lumbering on the upper waters of the stream. There is no question but it has proved a source of large profits to the owners of the boom. It has, moreover, contributed to swell the population and business importance of the town at which it is located by giving it a practical monopoly of the manufacture of lumber for the tributary country.

The owners of this boom are abundantly satisfied with its bearings upon their personal interests. Indeed, they are so pleased therewith that they wish to duplicate their advantages. To this end they have visited Harrisburg and instituted explorations, to see if they can get a bill through the two Houses and the Executive Chamber, authorizing them to construct a boom across the Allegheny river, at or near Freeport.

Within a few months past we have made several statements relative to the masses of valuable timber existing in the upper portions of the Allegheny Valley; of the introduction of tanneries, affording a local and important demand for hemlock bark; and of the immediate expansion of the lumbering interest consequent thereon. Of course, lumber dealers understand that timber cut while the sap is up, so as to facilitate bark peeling will not last more than half as long as timber cut when the sap is down; but the enhanced value of the bark will cause speedy and wide slashing in the hemlock forests. It may reasonably be conjectured, farthermore, that the general destruction of timber, which goes on steadily, without forethought as to the condition of on-coming generations, will, on the whole, enable the owners of deteriorated lumber to obtain as much for it as under other circumstances they would realize for stock of the soundest and most enduring description.

But this is not to the present purpose. These Williamsport boom men want to monopolize the lumber traffic of the Allegheny, or, at least, to levy toll upon it, which the erection of a boom would certainly enable them to do. It is of importance, therefore, to consider what the effect of their contemplated enterprise would be on the saw-mill interests above and on the course of navigation, ascending and descending, for ordinary commercial purposes.

As to the mill owners above, it is presumed they will give this subject prompt consideration, and then act as efficiently as shall seem to them for the best. They are not only hardy, but intelligent, and may safely be left to take care of their own case, in their own way. Connected with them, more or less directly, are the lumber dealers here and down the Ohio. Their welfare is not so directly involved, but they will, doubtless, feel impelled to give attention to the proposition now brought forward.

So far as relates to general commercial transactions, it is of moment to note the natural differences between the Susquehanna and the Allegheny. The former is a broad and shallow stream, with a bed abounding in protruding rocks. It has a descending navigation, at particular seasons, when copious rains or dissolving snows swell the volume of its waters. But it has no ascending navigation. Going up from Port Deposite to the Forks, at Northumberland, there are only here and there pools of sufficient depth to float a light-draft steamboat. From Northumberland upwards, whether by the North Branch to Otsego Lake, or the West Branch up to the fastnesses of the Allegheny Mountains, the same phenomenon constantly recurs. It may well be questioned whether another river of equal length exists which is so useless in the way of accommodating water-craft.

The Allegheny is navigable, from its confluence with the Monongahela up to Oil city; not, indeed, at all seasons of the year, but whenever the stream is swollen, which ordinarily happens for many weeks annually. This ascending navigation is of much value to this city. Since the completion of the Allegheny Valley Railroad this value is less than it was before; but it is still of too much consequence to be sacrificed or imperiled.

Of course, it will be averred that a boom can be maintained, at a suitable eddy, without impairing navigation; but this remains to be demonstrated. A boom is certain to be swept away by the pressure of the current and of logs, unless an eddy exists to such an extent as to produce still-water, or something akin thereto. This eddy must be large and certain, or it will not serve as a reservoir for huge masses of timber.

Consider a few other facts. The lumbermen above do not ask for this boom. The dealers in lumber, here and below, do not ask for it. Men, in various callings, interested in the navigation of the river, do not ask for it. A few men who are making money by the ownership of a boom on the Susquehanna, see a chance to double their gains by erecting a boom on the Allegheny. Is this a case in which the Legislature ought to interpose its authority in order to help a few to make fortunes, not by promoting the general welfare, and clearly at the expense of the many? Such a use of legislative power would be a flagrant abuse of the Commonwealth's right of pre-eminent domain; and would subject all who might be concerned in it, from the Governor downwards, to serious animadversion. The enterprise is simply a "big job," concocted to put money in a few pockets by inflicting damage on general and permanent interests.

FARM, GARDEN AND HOUSEHOLD.

The Song of the Horse.

A poor old stage-horse, lank and thin,
Not much else than bones and skin,
I jog along, week out, week in,
Kicked and cursed, and meanly fed,
Jammed in the side and jerked in the head—
But the thing that I can't at all make out
Is, what on earth it's all about.

Why was I made to toil and tug
For this odd little human bug,
Twolegged, dumpy as a jug,
Who sits aloft my ribs to batter—
Or why was he made, for that matter?
And, if I needs must be created,
Why is it that I was not fated
To prance and curvet, finely mated,
Silver-harnessed, sleek and fat,
With groom and blanket, and all that?

Here I go, day after day,
Pounding and slipping down Broadway,
Dragging these curious biped things,
With fore-legs gone and yet no wings—
Where they all go to I don't know,
Nor why in the world they hurry so,
Nor what good use Heaven puts them to!

It wasn't my fault, you see, at all,
That my joints grew big and my muscles small,
And so I missed of a rich man's stall.
I'm clumsy, crooked, stupid, slow,
Yet the meanest horse is a horse, you know,
And his ribs can ache with the kick or blow,
As well as the glossiest nags that go.
O, Lord, how long will they use me so!

And when may the equine spirit go
Where glorified horses stand in a row,
Switching their bright tails to and fro,
Careless of either wheel or whoa—
Where oats are always appropos,
And flies don't grow—
Oh, no
O!

Re-Stocking Rivers With Fish.

Legislatures in the Eastern States are all co-operating heartily in the effort to restore choice varieties of fish to those rivers in which they have been exterminated through the agency of mill-dams and other artificial barriers. In almost every State, commissioners have been appointed to study the habits of fish in the ascent of rivers to their spawning beds, and laws have been passed to secure the piscatory tribes in the rights of propagating their species. In Massachusetts, with the approval of the New Hampshire commissioners, substantial progress has been made by constructing fish ways on the Merrimac river at Lowell and Lawrence. That at Lowell is of the kind known as the "double stair," consisting of paralel lines of tanks, each of which is twelve feet higher than the next below, all built of masonary and timber, to resist the ice and freshets. The fish way at Lawrence is a kind of sloping dam, twelve feet wide, with a fall of one foot in ten and intermediate tanks in which the fish may rest. On the Connecticut no fish ways have yet been built, but the proprietors of the new dam building at Turner's Falls, have been notified that fish have rights that must be respected, and a fish way at Hadley Falls is in contemplation. The New Hampshire commissioners have planted about 20,000 salmon ova in the Pemigewasset. These are expected to hatch next spring.—N. Y. Journal of Commerce.

Seasoning Timber.

A chief reason why summer cut timber lasts longer than winter cut, is the rapidity with which it is or may be seasoned. If cut in the winter and allowed to remain in the log until the summer before sawing or splitting, it becomes more or less sap rotten, and of little comparative value. When cut in summer and sawed immediately, it dries in a few days, and becomes firm and hard like horn.

But many farmers cannot find time to cut and prepare their timber during the busy summer season. The next best thing is to provide in winter for effecting the seasoning as quickly as possible after the trees are felled. Go to the saw mill and make an arrangement to have your logs worked up immediately after being drawn there; and when the saw has done its work, place them on a windy spot where they will dry as rapidly as possible. If intended for rails or fire wood, do the splitting at once, and as fine as the intended use will permit. Cord wood, intended to be cut up for small stoves, will be worth twice as much a few months hence, if sawed and split at once into small sticks, and placed for seasoning where the wind has access, than if left in large pieces.—Country Gentleman.

Gas-House Lime.

This article has the effect of lime in but a slight degree. After it has been weathered, it consists to a great extent of gypsum (plaster.) Its effects upon the soil are to supply lime to the plant where this ingredient is wanting, (which on common soils rarely occurs, (to supply sulphur and sulphuric acid, and to produce that series of obscure, yet beneficial effects which plaster does—all of which plaster will do equally well or better, but not so cheaply. The weathered gas lime often contains small quantities of lime remaining long in the condition of slacked lime. This is exceedingly abundant when the article is fresh, and then it acts with good effect in vegetable compost heaps, upon muck, etc. If applied to the soil in this fresh state, and, during the growing season, placed upon the soil where crops will be effected, the results are uniformly disastrous, not owing to the lime, but to various combinations of sulphur with lime, which, after some months' exposure become converted into the sulphate of lime, or gypsum above alluded to.—American Agriculturist.

How to Treat Balky Horses.

If you have balky horses, it is your own fault, and not the horses, for if they do not pull true, there is some cause for it, and if you will remove the cause, the effect will cease. When your horse balks he is excited, and does not know what you want him to do. When he gets a little excited, stop him five or ten minutes; let him become calm; go to the balky horse, pat him and speak gently to him; and as soon as he is over his excitement, he will, in nine cases out of ten pull at the word. Whipping and slashing and swearing only make the matter worse. After you have gentled awhile, and his excitement has cooled down, take him by the bits; turn him each way for a few minutes, as far as you can; pull out the tongue; gentle him a little; unrein him; then step before the balky horse, and let the other start first; then you can take them anywhere you wish. A balky horse is always high spirited and starts quick; half the pull is out before the other starts; by standing before him the other starts first. By close application to this rule, you can make any balky horse pull. If a horse has been badly spoiled, you should hitch him to an empty wagon, and pull it around a while on level ground; then put on a small load, and increase it gradually, caressing as before, and in a short time you can have a good work horse.—American Farmer.

Making Straw Mats.

Those who use hot-beds or cold frames can hardly dispense with straw mats for covering them. The usual way of making them is to lash straw in handsful to cords stretched lengthwise for a warp. A correspondent, "N," of Milford, Ct., sends us his way for making the mats, which he considers easier and better. "Stretch the cords for the under side of the mat, (five is the usual number), lay on the straw, then stretch above the straw an equal number of cords, directly over the others. Then sew through the straw, catching the strings both ways, in the same way that brooms are sewed. To straighten the edges, lay a straight-edged board on the mat, stand on it, and with an axe cut off the ends of the straw. By this method the straw is all laid on at once, and there are no seams to allow of the passage of air." The plan of Mr. N. looks practicable. In whichever way the mat is made, the straw is laid on evenly, and at right angles with the warp. The butt-ends of the straw should be placed at the edges of the mat, and the upper ends lap over in the centre, taking pains to keep the thickness uniform throughout. The making of mats is good work for stormy weather in winter, and they are of great utility in protecting plants from early and late frosts.

Packing Snow Upon Wheat.

Last winter we suggested the experiment of packing snow upon winter wheat by rolling it down with a common land roller; but it was rather late in the season to be of any practical use at the time. This hint was taken from reading an account of an accidental experiment of the kind. A man having occasion to haul wood, one winter, across his neighbor's field of winter wheat, he engaged to pay him whatever damage it might do to the wheat, presuming that more or less damage would accrue. The road was staked out, so that it could be accurately distinguished at harvest time. But there was no need of stakes, for all through the season the wheat upon the track was a whole head and shoulders above any other part of the field, and the yield of grain was proportionably larger.

The difference was so marked that it seemed impossible that it should have been the result of the little manure dropped upon the track as the teams were passing, and the cause of the difference was regarded as a mystery. It is well known that snow well packed will resist the spring thaws and remain on the ground much longer than snow left as it falls, and that it is early bare ground in the spring time that injures the wheat. Hence the suggestion to take opportunities when the snow is soft enough to pack well, and roll it down on the fields of winter wheat. It is certain that it will cause the snow to remain on the ground longer and hold the soil more firmly in its place and protect the roots of the grain from some of the early freezings and thawings, which are supposed to be the chief causes of winter killing.

There is, as yet, no snow in this region to pack down, but it is liable to come any day or night. When it does come, we hope numbers of our farmers will avail themselves of the first opportunity to try the experiment, and in due time communicate the result. It will cost but little and may pay well. Every heavy fall of snow should be treated in this way to make the experiment perfect.—Wisconsin Farmer.

Household Recipes.

Philadelphia Buns.—One pint of milk, one cup of butter, one pint of yeast, three cups of sugar, one egg, make a soft dough at night. Early in the morning add not quite a teaspoonful of soda and two teaspoonful of ammonia. Now put in a little more of flour, mould it well, and return it to rise. When light, make into cakes, and let them stand half an hour or till light enough, then bake them.

Snow Balls.—Take half a pound of the best rice, put it into a saucepan with a quart of new milk; simmer it slowly, so that it may not burn; when it has absorbed all the milk let it cool; then mix in the whites of two eggs; pare and core some middling sized apples; put a little sugar into each, then envelop them in rice, tie them in cloths, and boil them for twenty minutes or half an hour, according to the quality of the apples used; turn them into a dish to serve, and dust them thickly over with loaf sugar. The advantage of this dish is, that it employs the whites of eggs; and sometimes, after making custards or preparations which require the yoks of eggs, housekeepers are at a loss to turn the whites of eggs to account.

Cake Sandwiches.—Four eggs, half pound of pounded lump sugar, half a pound of fresh butter, half a pound of flour; beat the butter to a cream, dust in the flour, and add the eggs well whisked; beat with a fork for a quarter of an hour; butter a tin, and pour in half of the mixture; bake from a quarter of an hour to twenty minutes; remove from the tin, butter again, and add the other half of the mixture; bake as before. When cool, spread jam thickly over one portion of the cake, place the other part over it, and cut into whatever shape you please.

Fritters with Yeast.—Make a batter of one pint of milk and as much flour as will form it, one teaspoonful of salt, and five tablespoonfuls of yeast; put this in a warm place three hours. Just before dinner, beat up one egg well, and add. These fritters are quite wholesome, being light, and do not absorb much lard. Boil them in lard.

Bread Cheese Cakes.—Slice up a large French roll very thin, pour on it some boiling cream or milk; when cold, add six or eight eggs, half a pound of butter melted, some nutmeg, a spoonful of brandy, a little sugar, and half a pound of currants; when mixed together pour the mixture into puff-paste as other cheese cakes.

A Pippin Pudding.—Boil six apples well, take out the cores, put in half a pint of milk thickened with three eggs, a little lemon peel, and sugar to the taste; put puff paste round your dish, bake it in a slow oven, grate sugar over it, and serve it hot.

Delightful Pudding.—One quart of boiled milk, a quarter of a pound of mashed potatoes, a quarter of a pound of flour, a small piece of butter, and, when cold, add three eggs well beaten; bake half an hour; eat with wine sauce.

A Good Cake Without Eggs.—One cup of sugar, one cup of butter, nutmeg, one cup of milk, two ounces currants, one teaspoonful of dry cream tartar, one half ounce of soda dissolved in milk, flour enough to make a batter.

Hard Gingerbread.—Two pounds of flour, half a pound of butter, one pint of molasses, a quarter of a pound of sugar, one ounce of ginger, half teaspoonful of soda, one teaspoonful cream of tartar.

Poor Man's Cake.—Two cups flour, one cup cream, one cup sugar, one egg, one teaspoonful of soda, two teaspoonsful of cream of tartar, mixed with flour.

Scotch Cake.—One pound of brown sugar, one pound of flour, a half pound of butter, two eggs, cinnamon. Roll very thin.

The Head and Hand.

Agriculture being a science as well as an art, requires both an "educated head and an educated hand." The educated hand must have the direction of the educated head, or, skilled as it may be in practice, it will lose half its labor for not working in the right direction. So the educated head must have the help of the practiced hand, or its wise devices will fail of proper execution.

Truth Stranger than Fiction

Newark, Licking Co., Ohio, Aug. 19 1867.

Messrs. Hostetter & Smith—Gentlemen: My wife having received so much benefit from your Bitters, I deem it my duty to give testimony in their favor. About one and a half years since she had a very severe attack of Dysentery, or Bloody Flux, which became chronic and continued for the above period of time, baffling the most skillful physicians in the country. We finally became discouraged, and gave up all hope of her recovery, when, by accident, my attention was called to your most valuable Bitters, by Messrs. Collins & Thurston, Druggists, handing me one of your almanacs. Finding them recommended for Bloody Flux I bought one bottle, and commenced giving according to directions; and before one third of the bottle had been taken she was entirely cured, and is now perfectly in good health at this time.

Most respectfully yours,
W. D. NUTTER.

Branchville, Ala., March 11, 1867.

Messrs. Hostetter & Smith, Pittsburgh, Pa.—Dear Sirs: I am hardly able to express my gratitude for the benefit I have derived from the use of your STOMACH BITTERS. I have been afflicted with Liver Complaint and dyspepsia for more than five years, from which I suffered no little. My physicians failed to give me permanent relief. I became melancholy and unhappy; my constitution was much broken down by using mercury. Accidentally meeting with one of your Almanacs induced me to procure a few bottles of your Bitters, which afforded me very great relief, and my sincere opinion that they will soon effect a permanent cure. I was pronounced incurable, and my recovery through your Bitters may be little short of a miracle. My neighbors express surprise on seeing me so much improved in health, and look upon my rapid recovery as wonderful.

Gratefully yours,
ROBT. F. NEWTON, P. M.

Chronic Diseases.

The functions of the human body give way, usually one at a time. A disordered liver, or a slight irritation of the bronchial tubes, an obstruction in the skin or of the renal organs, are sure to be followed by pains and aches in various parts, according to the extent of the organic or functional injury. A man afflicted with dyspepsia will soon find more than the stomach at fault. The food that he swallows fails to renew the natural wear and waste, the worn out matter is deposited in some nook or cranny, where it causes irritation or pain, when it ought to be thrown off and carried out of the system. Hundreds and thousands of just such sufferers have been relieved and restored to health and vigor by a few bottles of DR. KEYSER'S BLOOD SEARCHER, which not only imparts tone to the stomach and digestive organs, but likewise enriches the blood with the elementary principles needful to the restoration of the vital energy of the system. Be careful when you ask for it to get DR. KEYSER'S, for that is the kind, and the only kind, that has cured the numberless cases of disordered and broken constitutions. It was that which cured Mr. Boyd. It was that which cured John Titzell. It was that which cured Margaret McFarland. It was Dr. Keyser's Blood Searcher which cured all the old chronic cases which we have published from time to time in these columns. Dr. Keyser's Blood Searcher has cured more cases of chronic diseases than any medicine of recent origin. Sold by the gross, dozen, or single bottle, at the Doctor's great medicine store, No. 140 WOOD STREET.

Dr. Keyser's consultations rooms, 120 Penn St. January 28th, 1868.

1786. PROSPECTUS. 1868

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE.

The largest daily paper in the State of Pennsylvania, enters the 82nd year of its existence with increased facilities for disseminating the current news of the day, and for rendering good political service in the important Presidential Canvass of 1868. The forthcoming session of Congress promises to prove one of the most important held since the formation of the Government, and the proceedings will be anxiously watched by the intelligent masses. In view of the deep interest centered in the proceedings, the proprietors of the GAZETTE have made arrangements for daily dispatches and letters during the session, from a highly intelligent correspondent, who enjoys the confidence and friendship of the leading members of the Senate and House, the heads of the various Departments, and the leading politicians who frequent Washington, so that readers can depend on receiving the first, fullest and most reliable intelligence from the seat of Government.

The proceedings of the State Legislature, at its forthcoming session, will also prove interesting, inasmuch as many questions of importance will come up for legislation. The GAZETTE will keep at the State Capitol, during the entire session, an intelligent and faithful correspondent, who will promptly report the proceedings by mail and telegraph.

It is the only political journal of Pittsburgh which faithfully reflects and steadily advocates the principles held by the Union Republican Party, and interpreted by a loyal Congress.

It gives as much reading matter as any paper sold at twelve dollars per annum, while its price is but eight, being the cheapest as well as the largest newspaper in the Commonwealth.

With the enlargement, every department has been strengthened. The high character of its editorial columns will be maintained, and all questions of public importance will be fearlessly discussed.

The news department will be kept up to the requirements of the day, and in condensed items will faithfully mirror all the transactions worthy of note of the City, State, Country and world at large, and maintain for the GAZETTE the reputation of a live, enterprising and first class family and commercial newspaper.

Ample space has been reserved for market reports which can at all times be relied upon as correct, as the current quotations for manufactures, farm products, cattle, &c., &c., are daily gathered from actual sales, by faithful and efficient reporters.

The river news is collected with care, and will prove a very interesting feature of the GAZETTE.

The financial news department has been placed in charge of an able and experienced banker, who will render it quite an attractive and useful one to bankers, brokers and business men generally.

The religious department will receive the attention due its importance, and will be so conducted as to be pleasing and readable to members of all religious denominations.

The agricultural, art, science, literary, personal and other departments of the paper will be conducted in a manner which will prove satisfactory to the reader.

TERMS OF THE DAILY GAZETTE.

Three Months	$2.00.
Six Months	4.00.
One Year	8.00.

Delivered in Pittsburgh, Allegheny and all the adjacent Boroughs for 15 cents per week, payable to Carriers.

THE WEEKLY GAZETTE.

The WEEKLY GAZETTE has been enlarged to the same size as the Daily, and is now the largest, cheapest and best weekly family newspaper in the State. It should be in the house of every farmer, mechanic and business man. It gives each week forty solid columns of current news by telegraph and mail, the leading editorials of the daily, and a choice selection of literary and scientific items, together with everything important pertaining to the world of politics. Its agricultural columns will be edited in such a manner as to find favor with the farmer and gardener. The market reports of the WEEKLY GAZETTE are by common consent acknowledged to be the standard authority for both buyers and sellers, and in commercial circles in Western Pennsylvania, Eastern Ohio and Western Virginia are without equal. The files of the GAZETTE are used exclusively by the Civil Courts of Allegheny county, as reference in important issues, to determine the ruling prices in the markets at the time of the business transaction in dispute.

Our Agents will favor us by getting up their clubs at once, and not allowing their present ones to expire, as we are anxious that none of our readers should be deprived of a week's news. Additions to clubs can be made at any time, at yearly rates. Postmasters and Merchants are requested to act as Agents.

TERMS FOR THE WEEKLY GAZETTE.

Single Subscriber	$1.50.
Clubs of Five	1.25.
Clubs of Ten	1.15.

—and one to the getter up the club.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

THROUGH LINE COMPLETE
IN 1870.
THE
Central Pacific Railroad
The best and principal portion of the NATIONAL TRUNK LINE ACROSS THE CONTINENT, is being rapidly carried forward by an unprecedented working force; and it is reasonably certain that the CONTINUOUS OVERLAND RAILROAD CONNECTION FROM NEW YORK TO SAN FRANCISCO WILL BE MADE IN 1870.
The United States Government furnishes, upon a subordinate and contingent lien, half the means for constructing the Main Stem Line; and besides an absolute grant of 12,800 acres of valuable public lands per mile, the Central Pacific Railroad Company have received from California sources, donations and concessions worth more than $3,000,000. The available resources of this Company are therefore abundant for the purpose, amounting to $77,000,000 on the first 7.6 miles of the Line, including Loans secured by a First Mortgage upon the whole property, to the same amount only as the U. S. Subsidy Bonds.
The results already attained, although under comparatively unfavorable circumstances, afford substantial ground for believing the CENTRAL PACIFIC to be the Most Favored, Productive and Valuable Railroad Enterprise in the Country.
The Company are now offering for sale a limited amount of their First Mortgage Six Per Cent. Bonds,
Principal and interest payable in GOLD COIN, in sums of $1,000 each, at 95 per cent. of their par value and accrued interest from January 1st, in currency.
These Bonds it is believed, possess the elements of safety, reliability and profit in a greater degree, than any other class of Corporate Securities now offered, and are therefore very desirable for steady investments of surplus capital. Investors will bear in mind the following advantages:
I. They are the first mortgage on one of the most valuable and productive lines of railroad in the world.
II. The actual earnings from local business in 1867 were more than four times the annual interest engagements.
III. The hard part of the road is now done, and the prospects of rapid completion are favorable.
IV. The Company have liberal subsidies, which enable them to prosecute the work with great vigor.
V. The management has been exceedingly prudent and frugal.
VI. There is already a large and growing settlement on the completed and graded line.
VII. The lands promise to be of immense value, 37,038 acres having been already sold.
VIII. Both principal and interest are explicitly made payable in gold coin.
IX. Both the aggregate amount of issue and their standing in Europe will insure for them continued activity and a high rank among standard securities.
At this time they yield nearly
Nine per cent. upon the Investment.
Holders of Government Securities have an opportunity of exchanging them for Central Pacific Bonds, bearing an equal rate of interest, with the principal abundantly secured, and of realizing a profit of ten to fifteen per cent. in addition.
Orders sent with the funds through responsible Banks or Express Companies will receive prompt attention. Bonds sent by return Express, to any address in the United States, at our cost. Information, Descriptive Pamphlets, Maps, &c., furnished on application at the office of the Railroad Company,

The following unclaimed freight, stored with S. S. FLOYD & CO., 289 Liberty street, by Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago, and the Cleveland and Pittsburgh Railroads: [illegible]

J. B. HARRIS'
SAFETY FIRE JACKET,
For Smoke and Hot Air Flues.

HAVING OBTAINED OF THE UNITED STATES letters patent for a SAFETY JACKET, which is warranted to resist the most intense heat that may be applied to it in the position. It is a sure protection from accidents by fire, originating from defective flues, or where iron pipes are used as conductors for smoke or heat. It is applicable to all piping that may become overheated, and is warranted to give perfect satisfaction where wood or other combustible material may be placed in close proximity thereto. I am now ready to apply my invention to stores, dwellings, factories, ships, steamboats, railroad cars, &c., wherever pipes as conductors, are made dangerous by being overheated, and security desired. I will sell, on application, rights to manufacture or to use the above invention; also, territorial rights, to such as may wish to engage in selling privileges, either by state or county.

The Pittsburgh Gazette

EPHEMERIS.

—Oregon has Grant clubs.

—The ice boats of New York had a race recently for a silver cup.

—Senator Henry Wilson was in New York on Saturday and Sunday.

—Minister Washburne is wending his way homewards from Paraguay.

—A peat company, with a cash capital of $100,000 has been organized in Whiteside county, Ill.

—The Brookville Herald, of West Va., says that "the usury law, as it now stands, is ridiculous."

—The wool growers of Brooke county, West Virginia, have concluded to hold a meeting on February 6th.

—Nearly two million dollars' worth of shoes were manufactured by some 19 firms in Chicago last year.

—Jackson county, Ill., has just opened a fine quarry, the marble of which is said to fully equal that of Italy.

—Another illicit still has been seized in Baltimore, this time carried on in an Irishman's shanty in an obscure alley.

—Mr. E. L. Davenport, Mr. Charles Dickens and Mr. H. L. Bateman's comic opera troupe are all helping to amuse the Baltimoreans.

—Peoria has two causes of rejoicing; one is the killing of a rat weighing three pounds and a half, and the other is the erection of a new jail.

—Punch approves of short dresses because they give plain girls a chance. What nature denies the face she sometimes gives the understanding.

—Grasshoppers' eggs are so plenty in some parts of Arkansas that it is feared the State will be plagued, literally, in the Egyptian style in the spring.

—The Salem flouring mill of Oregon is making four hundred barrels a day. This is doing pretty well, we think, for the very hem of the outskirts of civilization.

—The St. Louis Republican calls the various southern Conventions, "Menageries," and "ring tailed, streaked and striped," which, of course, adds greatly to the dignity of that newspaper.

—We wonder if Mr. Croly's American Order of Knighthood has many members as yet? His article on that subject is the sensation which takes the place of the Dickens article in the last number.

—The decline in the figures in Boston is noticeable, and surely cannot all be blamed on Cunard and his steamers. A modiste says that her Boston customers need more and more padding every year.

—Halifax and the province in which it is situated having become imbued with Southern principles, has made up its mind to secede from the Dominion and then to look about for a good strong hook to hang upon.

—Professor Blot has already some six hundred subscribers to his Club in New York. We shall ere long be turned out a nation of gastronomers and bon vivants if Blot lives long enough to accomplish his pleasant crusade.

—The distilleries in Peoria have stopped, and Peorians are going to petition the President, or Congress, or the Supreme Court, to have the Revenue spies dismissed, as they can't carry on their business when so closely watched.

—A wealthy property owner in the Crescent City has reduced the rents on his property. One store, which easily brought $5,000 last year, he now rents for $3,000, and the reduction on his other property has been in like proportion.

—Alabama is to have a day of fasting and prayer to deliver the State from the horrors of negro domination. If they do not soon get over their absurd resistance to fate, they may have a longer day of fasting than either we or they would care to see.

—Punch says that St. Martin of Tours is the patron of travellers; by a slight use of the same logic we would make the London St. Mary Axe the patroness of executioners, and we would recommend all bandied persons to the protection of St. Mary Le Bow.

—Some persons are much troubled at the modernism, or Americanism, as they call it, of calling a widow a widow woman. The use of the term is, however, the original and correct one, and widow is merely an abreviation. Widow woman occurs in Chacer and the still earlier writers, and is also used in the Old Testament.

—Chicago having achieved greatness in the divorce line, has turned its attention to fires, and has burned up two millions of dollars worth of property. Greater fires than this have occurred, in fact we do not think that Chicago, if it would all burn down, could put itself at the head in the matter of fires, for Hamburg and London have too many hundred years start of it. But in murders and such things we think that their endeavors are successful.

—Charles Dickens will not visit the West. He has thrown up all of his engagements made in Western cities, and the only reason which he offers for this action is the fact of the burning of Farwell Hall in Chicago, by which he was deprived of a hall in that city suitable for his purposes. Many, very many people will be disappointed by this repudiation of Mr. Dickens; but many, very many more would have been disappointed if they had heard him.

—The Boston Post has complacently gotten off the joke about tracks and tacts, this time in connection with the English in Abyssinia. We always used to like that joke when we were quite small, but for the last twenty or thirty years it has been a little inclining to antiquity, and whenever we see or hear it we are reminded of an assertion that a recent writer has made that there is an immense amount of fascination in a weak joke to a newspaper paragraphist.

—That irrepressible little creature, George Francis Train, announces in a telegram to the World, that "Derby quakes, but dare not stop him." Poor Derby must be fast going into his dotage to have quaked before little Train. To be sure he is a whirlwind, a typhoon, a tornado, anything of that kind that you please to call him, but then the whole of it could be put in a homœpathic medicine bottle without damaging the pills. If Derby quaked before this—but probably the quaking was altogether in the vidid imagination of Train, who is enjoying himself on the weary shoulders of his admirers in Ireland.

—An alarming case of counting the chickens before the period of incubation was reached, has occurred in New York city. A young man married on Christmas day, intending to live on love in a cottage and $1,000 a year, which was the amount of his salary. On New Years day his bland employer kindly informed him with a Carker-like smile, that in consideration of the valuable nature of his services, and the depressed state of the markets, his salary hereafter should be $500, instead of $1,000, as heretofore. There was about as much consternation in the small family of that young man that night as is generally allotted to small families.

—The Philadelphia Ledger cannot settle down and get over the excitement caused by the honor which Charles Dickens, Esq., conferred on its platial edifice, by visiting it. And a correspondent of that paper is quietly asserting that all those facts which have been so well proven against Mr. D. are false. The most arrant assertion of this female correspondent is that Mr. Dickens is not the quintesence of a snob. We never heard that denied before. We had so made up our minds as to its truth that we almost believed that that author really believed it himself. If the Ledger correspondent had not made this assertion we should perhaps have believed his other ones, but this is really too much. It is simply impossible not to think and believe and know that the snobbery of Mr. Dickens is no fiction.

BUCHU.

(From Dispensatory of the United States)

DIOSMA CREN TA. — BUCHU LEAVES.

Properties.—Their odor is strong, diffusive and somewhat aromatic, their tastes bitterish, and analagous to mint.

Medical Properties and Uses.—Buchu leaves are gently stimulant, with a peculiar tendency to the Urinary Organs, producing diuresis, and like other similar medicines, exciting diaphoresis.

They are given in complaints of the Urinary Organs, such as Gravel, Chronic Catarrh of the Bladder, Morbid Irritation of the Bladder and Urethra, Disease of the Prostate and Retention or Incontinence of Urine, from a loss of tone in the parts concerned in its evacuation. The remedy has also been recommended in Dyspepsia, Chronic Rheumatism, Cutaneous Affections and Dropsy.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU is used by persons from the ages of 18 to 25, and from 35 to 55, or in the decline or change of life; after Confinement or Labor Pains; bed wetting in children.

In Affections Peculiar to Females the Extract Buchu is unequaled by any other remedy, as in Chlorosis or Retention, Irregularity, Painfulness or Suppression of Customary Evacuations, Ulcerated or Schirrous State of the Uterus, Leucorrœa or Whites.

Diseases of the Bladder, Kidneys, Gravel and Dropsical Swellings.—This medicine increases the power of Digestion, and excites the Absorbents into healthy action, by which the Watery or Calcareous depositions, and all Unnatural Enlargements are reduced, as well as Pain and Inflammation.

Helmbold's Extract Buchu has cured every case of Diabetes in which it has been given. Irritation of the Neck of the Bladder and Inflammation of the Kidneys, Ulceration of the Kidneys and Bladder, Retention of Urine, Diseases of the Prostate Gland, Stone in the Bladder, Calculus, Gravel, Brick dust Deposit, and Mucus or Milky Discharges, and for Enfeebled and Delicate Constitutions, of both sexes, attended with the following symptoms:—Indisposition to Exertion, Loss of Power, Loss of Memory, Difficulty of Breathing, Weak Nerves, Trembling, Horror of Disease, Wakefulness, Dimness of Vision, Pain in the Back, Hot Hands, Flushing of the Body, Dryness of the Skin, Eruption on the Face, Pallid Countenance, Universal Lassitude of the Muscular System, &c.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU IS DIURETIC AND BLOOD-PURIFYING,

And cures all Diseases arising from Habits of Dissipation, Excesses and Imprudence in Life, Impurities of the Blood, &c., superseding Copaiba in affections for which it is used, such as Gonorrhea, Gleets of long standing, and Syphilitic Affections—in these diseases used in connection with HELMBOLD'S ROSE WASH.

ORDINANCES.

AN ORDINANCE providing for the appointment and Regulation of the POLICE FORCE OF THE CITY OF PITTSBURGH.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the City of Pittsburgh, in Select and Common Councils assembled, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That hereafter the Police force of the city shall consist of not more than one hundred men, one of whom shall be designated as Chief of Police, one as Captain, and not more than eight as Lieutenants. The number to be employed to be fixed from time to time by the Police Committee. There shall be no distinction between Day and Night Police, but the whole force shall be subject to the control of the Mayor, and be detailed for duty as he may direct.

SEC. 2. The Mayor shall, at the first regular meeting of the Police Committee after his introduction into office, nominate to said Committee such persons as he may desire to appoint upon said force, and if any person so nominated be rejected by said Committee, he shall make new nominations, until the requisite number shall have been confirmed. No one shall be appointed as a member of said force except he be a qualified voter of the city of Pittsburgh.

SEC. 3. The Mayor shall have power, in cases of emergency, with the concurrence of the Police Committee, to appoint special policemen; but in such cases he shall report to Councils at their first meeting, the necessity for and the expenditure made on account of said increase.

SEC. 4. The Mayor may suspend from pay and duty any member of the police force for any specified time, not exceeding ten days, and may dismiss any member from said force; but in case of dismissal he shall at the next meeting of the Police Committee report the facts to said Committee, and nominate a suitable person to supply the vacancy, who may be rejected as in case of original appointments.

SEC. 5. It shall be the duty of the Mayor to prepare rules and regulations for the government of the police force, and prescribing their duties, which, when appointed by the Police Committee, shall be binding upon all the members of said force.

SEC. 6. The salary of the Chief of Police shall be $1,500 per annum; the pay of the Captain $2.50 per day; of each of the Lieutenants $2.25 per day; and of each of the policemen $2.00 per day. Provided, That none of said officers shall be entitled to pay for any time they may be absent from duty, unless such absence be by disability arising from injuries received in the service.

SEC. 7. All ordinances, or parts of ordinances, so far as the same are inconsistent herewith, are hereby repealed.

Ordained and enacted into a law in Councils, this 27th day of January, A. D. 1868.

JAMES McAULEY,

President of Select Council.

Attest: E. S. MORROW,

Clerk of Select Council.

W. A. TOMLINSON,

President of Common Council.

Attest: HUGH McMASTER,

Clerk of Common Council.

APPROVED, January 28th, 1868.

ja30: WM. C. McCARTHY, Mayor.

A SUPPLEMENT TO AN ORDINANCE passed the 4th day of November, A. D. 1867, entitled "An Ordinance relative to the Laying of Gas Pipe."

SECTION 1. Be it ordained and enacted by the Burgess and Town Council of the Borough of Lawrenceville, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That no other Gas Company shall receive the privilege of introducing gas into said borough in competition with the Lawrenceville Gas Company; Provided, the said Lawrenceville Gas Company will furnish gas to the said borough, and the citizens thereof, at as low rates at all times as those now charged, or that may at any time hereafter be charged, by other companies similarly situate; and provided, further, That the said Lawrenceville Gas Company shall commence and prosecute operations within six months from the passage of this ordinance.

SECTION 2. That when any street, lane or alley of said borough shall be opened by the said Gas Company a distance not exceeding in length 400 feet for the purpose of laying down, relaying and repairing the pipes as aforesaid, the same shall not be kept open or obstructed for an unnecessary length of time, but shall be enclosed and repaired, and all rubbish and dirt occasioned by the opening of any street, lane or alley as aforesaid, shall be promptly and effectually removed by the said Gas Company, at its own proper costs and charges.

SECTION 3. In the opening of any street, lane or alley as aforesaid, the said Gas Company shall use all necessary precautions to protect the lives and property of the citizens from accident and damage. It shall erect or cause to be erected all necessary barricades to prevent all such accidents and damage, and shall not allow any part of its works or apparatus necessary for the preparation of gas to be so situate as to endanger the property of any citizen or become a public nuisance.

SECTION 4. That for any violation of the provisions of this ordinance the said Gas Company shall, upon conviction thereof before any Justice of the Peace of the county of Allegheny, forfeit and pay the sum of twenty-five dollars, and for every hour's continuation thereof after such conviction, the further sum of fifty dollars; provided, that the recovery of any such fine or fines shall not bar or in any manner interfere with the right of said borough, or any individual or individuals to maintain a civil action for any damages which they may have sustained by any violation of the provisions of this ordinance by the said Gas Company. dv:5

A GREAT FAMILY CONVENIENCE.

A new and novel arrangement for having

HOT WATER BOILERS

attached to the back end of common cook stoves, so that the waste blaze which goes up the stove-pipe heats all the water needed in an ordinary sized family, by passing the blaze directly through the boiler, which sits over the pipe hole of the stove. This new arrangement can be put on to any No. 1, or 9 common Cooking Stove, of any manufacture. Any person having a TRIUMPH, VICTORY, BLACK OAK BEAUTY or UNION STOVE, or almost any other Cook Stove made in the Union, can have Boilers attached to their Stoves, including the Attachment, the Boiler and Lids, and Bibb Cock, for the moderate cost of SEVEN DOLLARS, by applying to

CHURCH

FAIR AND FESTIVAL.

The LADIES connected with PENNSYLVANIA AVENUE M. E. CHURCH propose holding a

FAIR AND FESTIVAL,

At Lafayette Hall,

COMMENCING TUESDAY FEBRUARY 11th, 1868.

Among other valuable articles to be contended for will be the following:

A FINE ROSEWOOD ESTEY COTTAGE ORGAN, (with Patent Harmonic Attachment, Patent Manual Sub Bass, and the Vox Humana Tremolo, which late and really wonderful invention, so acknowledged by all leading artists, is to be found only in these instruments; it entirely changes the reed tone, giving the sympathetic sweetness of the Human Voice, making it so melodious and pure that it never fails to enchant the appreciative listener,) to be awarded among the following (receiving the most votes) popular Choristers:

WM. A. LAWTON, Calvary Church, East Liberty.

GEO. ALEXANDER, Christ Church.

JAMES DIGBY, Third Presbyterian Church.

JAS. R. McCLATCHEY, Grace Church.

Instruments now on exhibition at Messrs. Barr, Knake & Buettler's, 12 St. Clair street.

A fine GOLD WATCH for the most popular Minister. The Watch is on exhibition at Will T. Wiley's Jewelry Store, Wylie street, near Fifth.

A fine GOLD CHRONOMETER WATCH for the most popular Clerk, Bookkeeper or Salesman. Also, a splendid SILVER TEA SETT for the most popular County Official. These two articles are to be seen at the Jewelry Store of Dunseath & Hazlett, 56 Fifth street.

Admission at the Door, 25 cents. Tickets for Dinner or Supper, 50 cents. fe1:k72

LEGAL.

ORPHANS' COURT SALE.

Splendid Mansion and Grounds.

On TUESDAY, February 25th, 1868, at 1 o'clock P. M., will be sold at auction, by order of Orphans' Court, an outlot on the eastern border of the Borough of Beaver, containing about TEN ACRES. About one-half is a beautiful grove, the residue well improved and planted with apple and peach trees, and a variety of small fruits and shrubbery. The improvements comprise a fine two story BRICK MANSION HOUSE, with four rooms on each floor, exclusive of kitchen, wash house and coal house. A good well and cistern and large barn.

The location is one of the most picturesque and beautiful in Beaver county, commanding a fine view of the Ohio and Beaver rivers, and of the several villages that cluster near their confluence. It is also extremely eligible with reference to Schools, Churches, Railroad Stations, &c. Probably no place now in the market combines so many conveniences and attractions suited to a gentleman that desires for his residence a spot at the same time secluded from the noise and din of business and quickly and easily accessible from Pittsburgh. This property was the homestead of Charles Stone, Esq., late of Beaver. Terms, which will be easy, made known at time of sale.

Persons visiting this Estate will be attended to and all questions answered by Capt. D. H. STONE, Executor of the Estate of Charles Stone, residing on adjoining lot. ja28:k87

THE COURTS.

United States Court—Judge McCandless.

MONDAY, February 3.—Court met at ten o'clock.

The first case called was that of the United States vs. Joseph Harris, otherwise called "Yankee Joe," indicted for having in his possession and passing U. S. Treasury notes and fractional currency. The defendant was a resident of Northumberland county. On the 26th of October last J. F. Rockey appeared before U. S. Commissioner Hepburne, of Williamsport, Lycoming county, and made information charging the defendant with having in his possession and offering for sale counterfeit money. He was arrested in Clinton county, and removed to this city for trial. The testimony for the prosecution established the fact that defendant had in his possession counterfeit fractional currency, and had passed it. The jury found a verdict of not guilty on the first count, and guilty on the second. The defendant was remanded.

The case of Daniel B. Miller, indicted for having in his possession with intent to pass counterfeit national currency notes. The defendant was arrested at Lock Haven, where the offense is alleged to have been committed. On trial.

The Grand Jury returned the following true bills:

U. S. vs. Michael Thicken, indicted for illegally brewing ale, and using cancelled stamps on the barrels.

U. S. vs Samuel M. Barton. Indicted for embezzlement of public moneys.

U. S. vs. Henry Ralston. Indicted for making and distilling without having paid special tax.

U. S. vs. Robert Black and William A. Thompson. Indicted for robbing the Postoffice at Pittsburgh.

District Court—Judge Williams.

MONDAY, Feb. 3.—Court met at ten o'clock.

City of Pittsburgh vs. Christian Zug. Action to recover $1,249,50, assessed upon defendant for the paving of that portion of Walnut street, from Pike to Allegheny river. Payment was refused for the alleged reason that the paving was not properly done, and not of a substantial, workmanlike character. The case is still on trial. J. F. Slagle, City Attorney, appears for the City, and M. W. Acheson for defendant.

Following is the list for Tuesday:

8. J. H. Gater vs. H. Riddle.
17. J. C. Patterson vs. Allegheny Savings Bank.
28. Petrona Oil Co. vs. Jas. Benny, Jr.
29. Cyrus Miller vs. Fuller & Eastman.
30. Steamer Dolphin vs. McCloy & Bro.

49. Wm. Voight vs. Eli Wycoff.
51. G. W. Irwin et. ux. vs. Roland H. Smith et. al.

Common Pleas—Judge Mellon.

MONDAY, February 3.—Court met at ten o'clock.

The first case called was that of C Geib & Co vs. Frank Hardt, owner and John Grady, contractor, for the building of a frame dwelling house on East Lane, Allegheny. This was an action on a mechanics' lien to recover $275 alleged to be due plaintiffs for work done. The jury found for the plaintiffs in the sum of $284.62.

John Koppitz vs. Wm. Hageman. An appeal from a judgment given against Hageman by Justice Ammon for $33 alleged to be due. The jury found for the plaintiff in the sum of $34.33.

Halloran & McMahon for use of John McMahon vs. Keir, Foster & Keir. Action to recover damages for alleged breach of contract, and twenty per cent. of moneys retained by defendants as security for the completion of the work of constructing a railroad on Sandy Creek. On trial.

Following is the trial list for Tuesday:

63. Schulz & Danner vs. Hamilton.
67. Pare vs. Gray.

82. Taylor vs. Pitt'bg Ft. Wayne & Chicago R. R. Co.
84. Bell vs. West Transportation Co.

Quarter Sessions—Judge Sterrett.

Court met at ten o'clock Monday. A new panel of jurors was in attendance, the fifth during the term.

SHARPSBURG SEDUCTION CASE.

The first case taken up was that of the Commonwealth vs. Peter Kiel, indictment seduction under promise of marriage on oath of Ellenora L. Kline. R. Biddle Roberts and Jonas R. Butterfield, Esqs., appeared as counsel for the prosecution, and M. Swartzwelder and F. H. Collier, Esqs., for the defense. The parties reside with their parents in Sharpsburg. The prosecutrix is now twenty-one years of age, and defendant about the same, from his appearance. Miss Kline testified in substance: The seduction took place in January, 1867, at her father's house, and the child was still-born in September last. The engagement of marriage, which was conditional—that is, the marriage was to take place when defendant was twenty-one years of age—was made in February, 1864, originating through a valentine received from defendant, and subsequently arranged at a sleigh ride out the Butler road. From that time up to the date of the seduction—Jan. 20th, 1868—and subsequently, defendant kept company and corresponded with her whilst he was absent in Greene county. Although she received some letters directly from him, the correspondence was mainly under cover to another young woman—defendant writing letters for a Mr. McCauley, who was in Greene county, to his (McCauley's) intended wife, and enclosing notes in the same envelope to Miss Kline. The mother of the defendant, with the knowledge of Miss Kline, was strongly opposed to the match. Although she went sleigh-riding on two occasions, and defendant was in the party, they did not go in company, Miss K. going once with a Mr. Patterson and again with her brother, and defendant going with a "hired girl" in his father's family—on account of the opposition of defendant's mother, who it was feared would "raise a fuss." On the part of the Kline family there was no objection to the "match," they being aware of the "engagement," and making it the subject of conversation when defendant was visiting at the house, which was nearly every Sunday night, and occasionally during the week. He became organist in the Lutheran church, after which his visits were made later on Sunday evenings. At the time of the seduction he claimed to be twenty-one years of age, although he said his parents fixed his age two years less. In March, 1867, when Miss Kline became aware of her condition consequent upon the seduction, she implored defendant to fulfil his promise of marriage, but he refused, at least did not comply. The association continued, however, and in June following defendant solicited her to take medicine to destroy her child. She refused, stating her condition would be revealed in any event, and in August she made it known to her mother. Prior to the seduction defendant made presents to Miss Kline, which were exhibited, consisting of an album and small gold locket, each containing his likeness, and also a gold pen with holder. The prosecutrix underwent a most searching cross-examination by Mr. Swartzwelder. At the close she asserted most positively, the question being asked, that she never had committed an improper act with defendant prior to the time stated, Jan. 20th, 1867.

Mary Ann Kline, mother of the prosecutrix, was next called, and gave corroborative testimony as to the attentions of defendant to her daughter from early in 1864 to March, 1867, when he ceased his visits. In June following (witness said on cross-examination) he came to the house, having been sent for. After Mrs. Kline had been informed of the condition of her daughter, (in August) the defendant was sent for twice, but refused to come. Finally Miss Kline sent him a note which brought him to the house. Mrs. Kline asked him to marry her unfortunate daughter, which he said he would do if they would let him go until the next Sunday evening. He failed to appear on that evening, but instead sent a letter, (a calumniating one, as claimed by the counsel for the prosecution,) in which he stated his refusal to marry the daughter; also that guilty as he was he believed others were equally so, and that he could not degrade himself by a marriage such as was proposed.

Dr. C. A. W. Reddick, who was present at the accouchment, was the next witness called.

J. G. Comstock, John England and Jacob Covode, residents of Sharpsburg, testified to the good repute of the prosecutrix in the neighborhood in which she resided; they had never heard her character called in question until the present case.

Mrs. M'Cauley was called and testified to receiving in 1865 letters from her husband (or rather a man who subsequently became her husband,) in Greene county, enclosed in which were letters for Miss Kline, from the defendant, as witness supposed. Witness remembered particularly the contents of but one of the letters thus received by Miss Kline.

Counsel for prosecution proposed to ask as to her recollection. Defense objected, on the ground that the letter should be produced. Objection not sustained, the prosecutrix having testified that letters written to her by defendant from Greene county were obtained from her and burned by him.

Witness went on to say that the letter spoke of the objection to the marriage by the mother of defendant, saying to prosecutrix to let the engagement remain as it was, and that he (defendant) would make her his wife when he was twenty-one years of age.

John Eberle testified that he saw defendant in Greene county in December, 1864, engaged in oil operations on Dunkard Creek; was employed there until August, 1865, keeping books for witness; while there he spoke of matrimonial matters, and of receiving letters from Miss Kline, and that he calculated making her his wife; McCauly and defendant wrote letters together; defendant had a likeness of Miss Kline hanging in his room while in Greene county.

A number of other witnesses, citizens of Sharpsburg, were called and testified to the good character of the prosecutrix. They had never heard it called in question until the present case came to light.

The case was not concluded at adjournment.

To the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

WHEREAS, Two several bills are now pending before your honorable bodies, each of which has for its object the incorporation of a Passenger Railway Company, the route of which lies along Liberty street, in the City of Pittsburgh, we, the undersigned, citizens of said city, do hereby respectfully remonstrate against the passage of the same, for the following reasons, viz:

First. Liberty street is now the only street leading eastwardly out of the city of Pittsburgh, that is unobstructed by passenger railways, and it is very desirable, as well as greatly to the interests of the business community and those traveling in their own conveyances, that there be at least one unobstructed thoroughfare leading eastwardly out of said city.

Second. Liberty street is not now entirely unobstructed; one side of the same being already occupied by the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, and any further occupancy of the street by a passenger railway would be greatly detrimental to the interests of the public.

Third. No necessity exists for a passenger railway along either of the proposed routes, inasmuch as the demand for public conveyance along such routes is fully supplied by the Pennsylvania Railroad.

Fourth. The Councils of the City of Pittsburgh, by a resolution passed March 28th, 1864, instructed their Senators and Representatives at Harrisburg to oppose the passage of any bill giving the right to lay a passenger railway track upon Liberty street, and your remonstrants believe that the same objections exist to laying such track now as existed at the date of the passage of said resolution.

Biddy on Her Travels.

A hen has been traveling, during the past six months, over the entire country east of the Mississippi. She has become a protege of the Merchants' Union Express Company, and travels from office to office in her coop. She started from Syracuse last July, and has been, since that time, in nearly every large Western city, and as far north as St. Paul, Minnesota. She is now in New England, having left Bridgeport, Connecticut, last Saturday, for Pittsfield, Mass. A Bridgeport paper gives a full account of her autocratic manners, her plump physical health and her cheerful disposition. She seems to examine the various offices with much interest, is usually at liberty, when not traveling, has more than she can eat of course, and lives like a princess. The officers of the company are her humble servants, and afford her protection as well as every possible facility.

It has been suggested that this hen intends to write a volume of American Notes. We hardly credit this report, however. The Express Company employes are mostly respectable, hard working men, and do not furnish that slipod of vulgarity and vice, which a great author should consider necessary to a correct delineation of national character. Some have said that Biddy intends to give a course of readings, and that a young rooster has been engaged as her agent. We trust the report is true. We shall read with much interest the eulogistic "criticisms" of the Tribune and the World.—N. Y. Mail.

—The Columbus (Ohio) Journal says an attempt to swindle life an accident companies out of $80,000 has just come to light, in which the Accident Insurance Company of Columbus is interested to the amount of $10,000. A man named Capt. M. L. Bryan, formerly of the rebel army, and a citizen of Georgia, went to Savannah and secured policies on his life to the amount of $80,000, early in June. In company with a man named Owens on the 10th of June, he went fishing on the Savannah River, and Owens testified under oath that the boat was upset and Bryan drowned. The insurance companies, however, were slow in paying up their losses on the dead man, and on the 13th of January, 1868, Bryan turned up at his home in Georgia.

—The murderer of Louise Krause, the beautiful Berlin lorette, is a deaf mute, and only eighteen years old. He asserts that she attempted to take from him his pocket-book, containing only four dollars.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
MONDAY, February 3, 1868.

Gold opened at 141⅝, advanced to 141¾, and remained at 141⅝ to 141⅜—market inactive. The transactions were light, and besides the foreign bankers and some importers, there are no purchasers in the market. The repeal of the cotton tax will increase the shipments to Europe and make commercial bills more plenty, prevent shipments of coin and strengthen the confidence of European bondholders in the ability of raising a sufficient amount of revenue to meet the current expenses of the government and the interest on the national debt. The importance of the repeal of the cotton tax can be better appreciated at the end of the present year, when all the old cotton is shipped or manufactured and the increased production of the current year ascertained.

The bond market was well sustained to-day, opening weak, but becoming more animated as the day proceeded; the rather downward tendency of the stock market had much to do with the strength of the bond market. We expressed our firm belief last Monday that Governments had reached their limit in the advance, and the records of the market showed our prediction to be correct, and now there is an additional element in the market that is likely to withdraw attention of capitalists from the United States securities; it is the appreciation of the Central Pacific Railroad bonds, which were looked upon by capitalists of the interior as doubtful, and New York bankers, those not special agents, did all they could to discourage people from investing in these securities—they would be a permanency, while governments would be used as a foot ball by the large dealers in these securities as soon as the last Seven Thirties was exchanged into a long bond.

Business is very dull, and trade unprofitable.

—One of the most gratifying of the confidence with which our securities are regarded in Europe, is the active demand which is kept up for five-twenties at advancing rates, notwithstanding the agitation which, for political purposes, has been fomented there, relative to certain crude schemes for partial repudiation. To show what is thought of such projects abroad, we copy from an influential London financial circular the following remarks:

One of the chief causes of the high position that England holds throughout the known world, is that her national credit is pre-eminently good, that her creditors can place the most implicit faith on her paying her debts honorably and in full. Were this national credit once shaken to any serious extent, England would undoubtedly fall at once—greatly—in the estimation of the world at large, and possibly never again attain the proud position she now holds. This occurrence is never likely to take place with respect to this country—at least in our generation, but the occurrence of a similar event has for some time been discussed relative to an another country. Perhaps we need scarcely say, we allude to America and to her Five Twenty bonds. An apprehension, somewhat general, has lately existed, that the Americans intend, or have taken into consideration, the intention of not paying these bonds in gold as per agreement when issuing them, but pay them in currency—this scheme has many (admitted) upholders—some of high political position and name, and Congress itself, or many of its members, favor such a scheme, but notwithstanding we firmly believe no such procedure will ever be adopted—at least not whilst the United States exist as at present. The Americans, we feel sure, would well weigh such a questionable policy before adopting it, and we can never be brought to believe them capable of such a repudiating scheme. A large quantity of these bonds were taken up and are still held in Europe, especially in this country, and the adoption of such a policy would be considered by all the European bondholders as a copyright fraud on them on the part of the United States Government.

The extent of the profits which the London joint stock banks and financial institutions are making are scarcely to be reconciled with the low rate of interest now prevailing in England when the security is good. At the annual meeting of proprietors of the London and Westminster Bank a dividend will be declared of 14 per cent. for the six months ending the 31st of December last, being at the same rate as for the corresponding period of the previous year, and with the 14 per cent. paid in July last, will make 31 per cent. for the twelve months. It is reported that the January dividend by the Union Bank of London is at the rate of 15 per cent. per annum, and that the directors of the National Discount Company (limited) will recommend a dividend for the half year at the rate of 15 per cent. per annum, at the meeting of the shareholders to be held on the 22d inst.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
MONDAY, February 3, 1868.

CRUDE.—The market was a perfect blank to-day, not a single sale reported, and so far as we could learn, there was no inquiry. Spot oil, in the absence of sales, may be quoted at 7c and 7¼c asked, and there seems to be but little disposition manifested to either buy or sell. For March and April, seller's option, there are offers to buy at 7¼ to 7¾c, and, we presume, offers to sell at 8c. There is some inquiry for May at 8c, and it is thought that sellers could be found at 8¼c. At Oil City, our private advices report a remarkably stiff market, and the article, it is said, is scarce both at that point and at the wells; Cleveland, New York and Baltimore buyers are taking all that offers at an advance over what Pittsburgh buyers are willing to pay, and this accounts for the remarkably light arrivals here for some days past. A gentleman who has just returned, asserts that there are any number of empty cars at Oil City awaiting to be loaded for this market, but there is no oil to be moved in this direction—it is all going to other points.

REFINED—There was not a single operation in bonded oil to-day, and the market is dull and weak, with a drooping tendency. The best offer to-day and the only one we could hear of for present delivery, was 22c, a decline of from ¼ to ⅜ of a cent per gallon, compared with last week, and even at the reduction, there seems to be a limited demand. We are also cognizant of an offer to buy September at 28c, and, we presume, that all the year, buyer's option, could still be sold at 30c. We were in hopes that the bottom had been reached when spot oil touched 23c, but in this, we were disappointed, as we now find it down to 22c. There is some speculative inquiry for forward deliveries at very low figures, but these buyers do not at present meet with much encouragement here.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
MONDAY, February 3, 1868.

There are no new features to note in regard our general markets. Dullness and depression appear to be the order of the day, and so far as we can see, there is but little prospect for any immediate improvement. It was thought some weeks ago that if money matters would get easy, that business would improve; money is now easier, and there is no obstacle to anyone in good standing getting all the accommodations they want, but as there seems to be an entire absence of anything like a speculative feeling, there is no pressing demand for money.

GRAIN—Winter Wheat is scarce and in steady demand but unchanged; we continue to quote at $2.40@2,42 for Red, and $2,50@2,52 for White. Corn is plenty and dull, and, on track, cannot be quoted above 95c to $1. Oats steady, with a fair demand, but the supply is fully up to it; sales on track, at 65@66c, and in store, at 68@70c. Barley is scarce and in demand at $1,85@1,90 for Spring. Rye is quiet and unchanged at $1,35@1,40.

FLOUR—The Flour market continues exceedingly dull and neglected, though prices are well maintained, ranging from $10,75@11,50 for Spring Wheat; $12@12,50 for Winter Wheat, and $14@15 for fancy brands. Rye Flour is steady at $8,50, while Buckwheat is in good supply and dull but unchanged at $4,50 per cwt.

PROVISIONS—Bacon is quiet and steady but unchanged at 10@10½c for Shoulders; 12@12¼c for Ribbed Sides, and 16@16½c for Breakfast Bacon and Sugar Cured Hams. Lard is steady, with sales of country at 13c, and kettle rendered in tierces 13½c, and 14¼c, in kegs. Mess Pork is nominal at $22.

BUTTER—There is an increased supply, and while the market is a little easier, prices are unchanged at 35@40c.

EGGS—Unchanged at 38c.

APPLES—In steady demand but unchanged; regular sales in store at $3,50 to $5,50 per bbl, for common to choice.

POTATOES—Dull and unchanged; small sales in store at $1@1,10 per bushel, and $3,25@3,50 per bbl, as to quality.

SEEDS—Clover seed is steady at $7,50, with regular sales in a retail way at $8. Flaxseed is in good demand at $2,35. Nothing doing in Tim thy.

DRIED FRUIT—Is in good supply and dull but unchanged. Peaches are still quoted at 7@9c for quarters, and 10@12c for halves, and Apples at 7@8c.

HAY—Is steady but unchanged, with regular sales from country wagons at $18@22, as to quality.

LARD OIL—Is still quoted at 83c for No. 2, and $1,10 for No. 1, not withstanding Lard has advanced ½ a cent.

ALLEGHENY CATTLE MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
MONDAY, February 3, 1868.

CATTLE.

The supply of cattle was light this week, not exceeding, if reaching, 700 head, and with an average local demand and some inquiry for shipment, the market was remarkably stiff, and if anything, taking the quality of the cattle into consideration, prices ruled a shade higher than last week. Butchers complain bitterly and with good reason, too, of the present extreme prices, but there seems to be no help for it; drovers are not to blame, as they are obliged to pay big prices, too, and we feel satisfied that they would rather sell cattle at 5@6c than 8@9c, as their profit would be fully as large, and there is not so much money invested. There is no scarcity of cattle in the country, but farmers and stock-growers, as a general thing, are so situated that if they cannot get their price, they can keep their stock, not being obliged to sell, as is the case with operators in many other departments of trade. It is not a little remarkable that while many commodities have depreciated in value from 50 to 100 per cent., cattle are now almost as high as they were during the rebellion, and the only reason we can assign is the one above noted. As will be seen by reference to the report of sales, prime to extra retailing cattle sold at from 8@9c, gross; common to medium at 5@7c, and stockers at 5@6¼. The following is a pretty full report of the sales:

E. Katz sold 17 head of mixed Ohio stock for Roenbaugh at 5¾@—one car load of fresh cows and springers unsold.

Stakely & Bro. sold 19 head of cows and bulls at 3 to 6, for the former, and 4 for the latter.

Greenwald & Kahn sold 15 head of extra fat cattle to Fred Beitsteine (butcher) at 9; retailed 60 head at 6@9.

Henderson wholesaled 17 head of fairish cattle to Greenwald & Kahn at 7.

Kraus & Haas report having retailed 73 head Ohio and Illinois cattle at 6 to 8¼.

M. Verner retailed 19 head of Indiana stock for Ross at 5¼ to 7¼; also, 10 head stockers at 5¼.

Myers & Needy report having retailed 40 head of Ohio cattle at 6¼ to 8¾; and 18 head of Penna. stock at 5 to 6¾.

L. Rothchilds sold 38 head of Chicago cattle at 6¼@7¾.

Jas. McAllister reports having sold 42 head of commission cattle at 6 to 8¼.

Lafferty, Glass & Co. sold 15 head for Blue at 5 to 9, and 5 head for other parties at 4¾ to 5 60.

Paxton sold 12 head of common to medium Washington county steers and cows at 5¼@7.

Hedges & Taylor sold 35 head for W. T. Laub at 2 to 8¼; and 18 head for D. Y. at at 6¼@7.

Hazlewood & Blackstock sold 25 head Penna. cattle at 5¼ to 8¼; and 17 head on commission, for Crawford, at 5 to 8¾.

John Kerwin, assisted by John McAllister, bought 21 head of bulls, in small lots, at 4@5¼, which were afterwards sold to Wm. Hines at a profit of something like one dollar per head.

There were some other dealers whose sales we did not get, including Marks & Traurman, L. Shamberg, and Hartman & Shamberg. Our good natured old friend Nicholas Oarr, and who, by the way, is an excellent salesman, did not have a single bullock on sale to-day.

We were pleased to meet Mr. H. A. Merrick at the yards to-day. Mr. Merrick was for many years a regular dealer at the Allegheny Yards, and is well known to all engaged in the trade; he is at present operating and residing in Chicago.

SHEEP.

The supply of Sheep to-day was much larger than for several weeks past, but with a very fair demand, the market was steady and fairly active, and notwithstanding the increased supply, there were but few left over unsold, and prices were fully maintained. It is possible that the extreme prices of cattle may have caused the butchers to buy more Sheep than usual, and if consumers would buy more mutton and less beef it might exert some influence in bringing cattle down to a reasonable price; besides, mutton is generally regarded as being more wholesome than either beef or pork. The following sales were reported:

Adam Eckert sold 27 head—part at $3 per head, and the balance at 6¼ per lb.

Wm. Garvin reports having sold 134 head of mixed Sheep at $1,70 to $5,50.

Young & Bro. report 160 head at $1,25 to $1,50 head—must have been pretty hard stock, a grade below "scalawags."

Wolfe & Lenz report having sold 74 head, at an average of 6c.

We also heard of a bunch of 100 head of prime fat Sheep having been wholesaled to a butcher at 6¼.

Emerick & Co. sold 49 head at $4 per head, and 36 at 5¾c per lb, gross.

HOGS.

The market has ruled firm during the past week, with a continued fair retail demand, and compared with last week, prices are a shade higher. Like Cattle, the price of Hogs is getting out of reasonable bounds, and there is no doubt but what the top has been reached. We look for these big prices to draw in heavy receipts, and just as soon as this occurs there will be a break; but it is not likely to occur before.

Rothchilds & Byers report having sold 150 head during the past week at 7¼ to 8¼.

Emerick & Co. sold about their usual number, but we failed to get their prices.

New York Dry Goods Market.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, Feb. 3.—Cotton goods are fairly active and strong, while Calicoes are rampantly active and higher. The Merrimack Company have advanced their prints to 13½c for the D, and 14½c for W. Some of the jobbers have put up the former to 13⅛c for fancy and the latter to 14½c for pinks and purples, and all of them will advance to-morrow. ½c per yard. Sprague's prints are up to 12½c, and are likely to go higher. Richmonds and Dunnels are bringing 12½c and prices are tending upward. Allens are withdrawn for higher prices, and the same is true of all others. The American are still selling at 12c and Wamsutta at 9c. Alamance plaids command 15½c. For other goods there is no particular change, but the indications are that prices will be higher before they are lower. Print cloths are at 7¼c; Delaines, 17c, which is, relatively, very cheap.

RIVER NEWS.

The weather was extremely cold yesterday, the thermometer at half past nine in the morning being only two degrees below zero, while still earlier in the day it was two degrees below zero, at the Allegheny Suspension Bridge. This being the second of February, Sunday of an early break-up, have vanished, and the indications at present are that the ground-hog sign of six weeks more cold weather, is likely to be verified.

One hundred thousand sacks of corn, and much wheat, oats, rye and barley, along the Wabash, are waiting for a rise and opening of the rivers.

There were recently about 14,000 bales of cotton at Jefferson, waiting shipment to New Orleans, 1,000 bales at Marshall, and 3000 at Shreveport.

A Louisiana planter who shipped $20,000 worth of sugar on the steamer General Quitman in 1862, for the port of Memphis, that man in 1862, for the port of Memphis that was seized and confiscated by the Confederate Government officials before it reached its destination, has just recovered the value of the shipment. The boat was seized at Memphis Thursday, but her owners gave bond and left for New Orleans.

THE STEAMER SHERMAN SUNK.—CINCINNATI, February 3.—The steamer Sherman, from New Orleans to Cincinnati, with a valuable cargo of groceries, was destroyed by fire at Evansville, Indiana, yesterday morning. She had previously discharged most of her freight. No lives were lost. The books and money were saved. The Sherman was owned in Pittsburgh, and insured in Cincinnati offices for $20,000.

We clip the following from the St. Louis Republican of Friday: The Louisville Courier continues to claim that the Cumberland Diamond on her last trip to New Orleans amounted to 2772 tons. As the latest style is to have it that Bob Logue, to footing up the freight list, commenced at the big and went back, and so doing forgot to stop until the paper and patience was exhausted. The floating tonnage is at least two, and perhaps three trips, this is a very reasonable theory, for any gentleman who were at Cairo when the Richmond passed down that state has stated to have a better room above the ... had been stripped of their rating, have had the ... left her..

A well known steamboat, Captain and owner, left this city for the Saturday last for Louisville, where he proposes to confer with Clarke of the Courier, and Captain De Haven, with a view of getting their views up of a packet line. The Captain also has selected, Captain and former of a former Lighthouse Line President as financial agent, and from the ... that the gentleman can bring out ... line of steamboats that will eclipse the world. The gentleman believes the arrangement mentioned the Captain thinks he can ... excessive ... boats that will be thought to ... especially in the neighborhood of the falls of the Ohio.

The steamboat packet companies of Saint Louis have agreed to inaugurate the coming seasons' business with the following schedule of officers' wages:

Captain	$150	Striker	$ 50
Clerk	150	Second do	50
Engineer	150	Mate	100
Second Engineer	75	Second Mate	60
		Carpenter	75
		Watchman	60

CABIN CREW'S WAGES.

Steward	$100	2d Pantryman	30
Second Steward	75	3d Pantryman	25
Lamp trimmer	25	Barber	25
Texas tender	25	Second cook	40
Berth maker	25	Third cook	30
Berth maker	25	Pastry cook and assistant	60
Insiders	25
Outsiders	15	1st chambermaid	25
Silver tender	25	2d chambermaid	20
Pantryman	40

Pilots' wages are left for future consideration. Neither wharfboat nor a ship chambermaid is to be carried. A scaling is to be held every Saturday, to ascertain if any changes are required.

From a detailed report of the breaking of the ice gorge at St. Louis, we extract the following incidents from the Democrat of Friday:

One fat lady, weighing over two hundred pounds, was so much carried on that her life was in danger. Her husband, who was carried ashore over the heads of the crowd, presenting a spectacle that was viewed by a great number of the "Last Dragoons."

An anxious traveler, who had put aboard his wife in the confusion, and was watching his chance, with an overcoat on his head and a promising baby in his arms, became terribly agitated at the way in which he was hustled, and shouted to a stranger, "Come along, please look for this baby.—I am trying to get a distance baby, and he never had what they see." It looked as though ... a Mr. Gordon, and the same he ran to the back the agitated father, but it was too late ... the proposed ... the fat lady was lifted to the ... the stimulus as ... to adopt ...

The fat man continued to ... the stage plank ... was finally cleared of ...

MEDICAL.

A GREAT CURE OF ASTHMA.

I feel myself under obligations to you, as well as a duty I owe to others who have been like sufferers with myself, in order that they may know where they can procure relief. I had been subject to violent, continued attacks of ASTHMA for more than six years, and had been to great expense and to various medical men in order to obtain any permanent relief, if relieved at all. I was so bad that I never knew what was to be free from the disease. I had to sit in bed every night for weeks and weeks, without any prospect or hope of ease. My condition was such that I felt life a burden, and when I got an attack I felt in danger of suffocating every moment. So terrible had been my suffering that my mother says that she has seen me so near suffocation that I was nearly black in the face from the desperate efforts made to get breath. In the cold winter nights, many a night, with the doors and windows of the house thrown wide open, in order to hinder the approaching danger of strangulation. In this condition, on the 19th of October, 1866, I being heard of DR. KEYSER'S skill in curing this disease, I called on him, in company with my husband Joseph Meyers, but I must confess, with a great deal of doubt as to effecting a permanent cure. DR. KEYSER examined me carefully, and my lungs all over, with his LUNG SOUND, and told me that with care it would get well. I persevered with his medicines for over a year, and am to-day in vigorous health, and TOTALLY FREE FROM THE ASTHMA, and to this day I consider ... I have had, once in awhile, a slight attack of the disease, but I regard my health as entirely re-established, so if I do catch cold, a few doses of the Doctor's medicine immediately relieves it. I cannot feel too thankful for the exemption from a disease which used to cost me whole weeks and months of loss of sleep, besides suffering which none but those who are subject to this disease can fully appreciate or describe.

MARY MOUNT JOY, (her mother,)
GEORGIANA FISHER.
Birmingham, Dec. 9, 1867.

The case of Mrs. Myers, recited above, is one of more than ordinary importance, because of the violence of the attacks to which she was subject, and the great prevalence of the disease at this season of the year. ...
